Accused Atty. General Also Labeled Lunatic

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Si Garrett, Alabama attorney general, was charged Monday with fraudulent changing of votes in the June 1 primary. A few minutes after his arrest, Jefferson Solicitor (prosecutor) Emmett Perry filed lunacy proceedings against Garrett.

The attorney general was indicted on the vote fraud charge June 30 by a Jefferson (Birmingham) grand jury. He posted $1,000 bond after he surrendered at the sheriff's office.

After the bond was posted, the lunacy proceeding was filed by Perry before Judge J. Russell McElroy, presiding judge of the Jefferson circuit court. A hearing was set for July 21.

It asks the court to determine "the mental condition of the defendant" as rapidly as possible. Garrett has been under psychiatric treatment in a hospital at Galveston, Tex., since June 24.

Garrett issued a statement in which he declared he had "violated no law, state or federal" and further that he had "committed no legal or moral wrong."

The attorney general, who is Alabama's chief prosecutor, was a witness before the grand jury here which also indicted solicitor Arch Ferrell of Phenix City and Lamar Reid, chairman of the Jefferson County Democratic Executive Committee, on the vote fraud charges.

The three men were charged with altering the official vote for Lee Porter in the race for attorney general to add 600 votes for him. Porter was beaten in a close race with Albert L. Patterson, Phenix City anti-crime crusader.

Patterson was slain June 18, a few days before he was scheduled to appear before the Jefferson grand jury to testify in the vote fraud inquiry.

Coquille GI Stabbed To Death; Wife Jailed

CAMP HALE, Colo. (AP) — Sfc. Duane A. Livengood of Coquille, Ore., died in a Leadville hospital Monday after a stabbing in his quarters near this mountain Army post.

Sheriff Clarence C. McMurrough said the soldier's wife, Frances, formerly of Pueblo, was held at the county jail in Leadville. She told the sheriff the couple had been "fighting and arguing all evening."

The sheriff said Mrs. Livengood told him her husband had threatened her and she stabbed him with a steak knife having an eight-inch blade, in their cabin court at Birdseye Flat, five miles east of Leadville. Livengood had wounds in the back and chest. He was with the 973rd Engineers Headquarters and Service Company and had been in the Army six years. The Livengoods were married at Las Vegas, N. M.

Valley Real Estate

Garden Valley Double

THAT'S RIGHT; not 1 but 2 almost new modern, 2 bedroom homes in Garden Valley, on ½ acre. Both well built modernistic homes just off pavement, close in. Look out across the Valley and watch its beauty unfold for you. A home deal like this is truly rare. The whole, exciting, fabulous story is that the owner will sell you the larger home at $10,999.00, and the 2nd home at $1.00. Almost unbelievable ain't it? 2 homes in Garden Valley for $11,000.00. There is no trick to it. We'll show 'em to you. Don't wait!

We Were Mistaken

THAT'S RIGHT we were wrong. An ad writing instructor says: "Do not feature too many advantages, better tell of only 1." Here is the feature. It's a GOOD home. Living room is large and good. Dining, kitchen combination is good. Both bedrooms are good. Modern features are good. 220 wiring is good. Floor furnace is good. Weatherstripping and insulation are good. Owner's will trade for larger home on acreage, that's good. Price $8,950.00 that's good. You look, you buy, that's good. You no look, you no buy that ain't good.
