TENMILE GIRLS MAKE SUMMER PLANS

Chescha-may Camp Fire girls met at the home of their leader Mrs. Gladys Burr Wednesday afternoon. The girls learned some new songs and are planning an overnight camping trip and cook-out for some time soon. Two girls from this group, Nancy Sypher and Sally Ison, will leave Sunday for Camp Tyee to spend a week. The girls report they have sold twenty-five boxes of greeting cards. The profits will help pay their necessary expenses.

The group has held six meetings since the close of school and will continue to meet each week through the summer.

Guests at the meeting were: Mrs. Sally Ison, Mrs. Kathleen Sypher, Linda and Carol; and Mrs. Faye Freadman and Patty. Games were played and refreshments were served including a cake decorated with the name and insignia of the group.

TENMILE COUPLE ENTERTAIN GUESTS
