

FIVE RETIRED ROSEBURG COUPLES

Society

LOTUS-KNIGHT PORTER

Sat. July 24, 1954—The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. 5

MR. AND MRS. J. A. HARDING above, of 218 E. Lane St., who operated the Umpqua Hotel in Roseburg for many years, are enjoying life more than ever since retiring from business. They have traveled extensively both in this country and Canada as well as abroad. They made a trip to the Hawaiian Islands, a tour of Mexico, traveled throughout the European countries as well as England, Ireland and Scotland and just recently returned from a tour of South America and islands of the Carribean. Mr. Harding has taken beautiful colored slides of their travels.

MR. AND MRS. H. B. CARTER, below, of 928 Military St., have just recently begun their retirement from business. Mr. Carter has been in the printing business most of his life. He spent several years in Honolulu, before moving his family to Roseburg, at which time he was in charge of the printing department of the News-Review and later purchased the job printing department and entered his own business with other associates in the Roseburg Printing Company. The Carters have two daughters, Shirley and Ann, both of whom are married and residing in California, and a son, Harlan Jr., who has been attending Southern Oregon College of Education. The Carters are enjoying frequent trips to California to see their grandchildren.

RETIRED COUPLES in Roseburg are numerous and their many activities and hobbies are interesting and enjoyable not only to themselves but to their friends. Gardening and civic work take up much of the time of those retired. Trips are of special enjoyment to many of the retired couples as they have the time to enjoy leisurely cruises and enjoy stays in places of interest.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES W. WHARTON, above, have resided in Roseburg all of their married life and reside at 203 N. Chadwick St. Mr. Wharton was formerly in business with his brother, Jack, who is also retired, in Wharton Brothers, corner of Main and Washington Streets. Mr. Wharton is a former mayor of Roseburg. Mrs. Wharton has been active in civic affairs as well as her husband. They have a place on the North Umpqua and spend much of their time there during the summers. They have one daughter, Florence Wickland, a teacher in Honolulu, who is here to spend the summer with them.

MR. AND MRS. A. A. WILDER, above, who reside at 155 S. Chadwick St. have enjoyed spending their winters in Arizona since Mr. Wilder retired several years ago from his business, "Wilder's Men's Clothing Store," which he operated for many years. The Wilders, who have one son, Carlton, have only recently returned home from a stay in Phoenix. Their son has been taking post graduate work at the University of Arizona during the last year.

MR. AND MRS. S. L. KIDDER, at right, have spent a part of their married life in Roseburg and the remainder in Manila, P. I. They were in Manila at the time of the Japanese invasion and were held prisoner at Santa Tomas for more than 3 years. Upon liberation, they returned to their home in Roseburg, where they reside at 456 N. Stephens St. The Kidders have three sons, Stanley R. Kidder, vice consul to Singapore; Major Jack Kidder, who is stationed with the armed forces in Germany, and Robert P. Kidder, Roseburg. The Kidders have seven grandchildren.

All Pictures On This Page
By "Chris" Of
Fredrickson's Photo Lab

