SUCCESSFUL ACHIEVEMENT DAY HELD BY UMPUQUA 4-H CLUBS

A very interesting achievement day was held by the Umpqua 4-H Clubs Saturday at the community hall. The leaders were present in the morning and placed all the exhibits for the judges. Miss Jane Gates and Frank von Borstel, county 4-H directors, did the judging and placed the ribbons.

In the livestock club four of the members had animals to show. Jean Thennes, Janice Rippstein, Sandra Thennes and Peggy Murphy had calves on display and each received a red ribbon. Joyce Rippstein's lamb won a red ribbon.

In the cooking division, in which the boys and girls had made cup cakes and cookies, blue ribbons were won by Clara Nichols, Joyce Rippstein and Marrieta Munson. Red ribbons were won by Janice Rippstein, Janet Nichols, David Crane, Corky Hebard, Sandra Thennes, Norma Perry, Barbara Mohr, Rolly Tandy and Mildred Judd. Donnie Thomason, Bernice Judd, Jean Thennes and Peggy Murphy won white ribbons.

In bachelor sewing, Rolly Tandy won a blue ribbon. Besides the local leaders, and the county leaders, the clubs had as their guests: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Crane, George Munson, Mr. Branton, Mrs. Amerson, Mrs. Teller, Mrs. Ollie Perry and Mrs. Coffey.

A program was given by the club members with several demonstrations of the things they have learned this year. All are ready and anxious for the county fair where competition will be keen.

CAMAS VALLEY 4-H CLUB PICNICS

The Camas Valley Wayside was the scene of a delightful picnic Sunday noon for the boys and girls of the 4-H Club.

Those enjoying the picnic were: Ben Astrada, Billie Battles, Glen Jones, Bill Brown, Jerry Bailey, Ronnie Munch and John Wheeler.

Those chaperoning the group were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Bartley, Mr. and Mrs. Art Jones and Mrs. Bill Battles.

SOCIAL NIGHT ENJOYED AT RIVERSDALE GRANGE

Saturday evening a large group enjoyed the social evening of cards and dancing held at the Riversdale Grange Hall for members and their invited guests. Door prize was won by Adam Schneider. Lovely refreshments were served by the committee. MaryLou Newhouse, Mark Dunham, and Lucy and George Osterman.

Society

EDEN LADIES PLAN PROJECTS

Ladies Aid of the Eden Lutheran Church in Elgarose held a business meeting Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mabel Backlund with Mrs. Hildur Johnson as co-hostess.

Mrs. Elsa Hunter brought the session to order with a prayer. A discussion was held on ways and means of raising money and planning a program for the fall. Plans were made to have an ice cream social, August 14, at the church from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Hunter, August 17, with a dessert luncheon at 1:30 p.m.

Lovely refreshments were served to Mrs. E. O. Bloomquist, Mrs. Emilie Hargensheimer, Mrs. Edna Sjogren, Mrs. Zelma Sand, Mrs. Elsa Hunter, Mrs. Lilly Backlund and the two hostesses.

SUTHERLIN EAGLES AUXILIARY ANNOUNCES JUNIOR CANDIDATES

Sutherland Eagles Auxiliary members have announced they will sponsor Freddie Vogt and Vickie Hammond for junior king and queen of the annual Timber Days celebration. Members are selling tickets, which will count as votes for the junior king and queen and also will be used in awarding prizes.

The auxiliary will sponsor a rummage sale Saturday, July 31, beginning at 10 a.m. at the Eagles Hall in Sutherland.

The annual picnic of the Sutherland Eagles and Auxiliary will be held Aug. 8 at an all-day affair at Camp Tye. Members, their families and friends are invited.

A special meeting of the auxiliary has been called for Aug. 6 at 8 p.m. at the hall.

CAMAS VALLEY UNIT APPOINTS COMMITTEES

Camas Valley Home Extension Unit met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Carl Dahl, chairman of the unit. Several new members joined the unit.

Mrs. Dahl announced her committees for the following year as: membership, Mrs. Grant Horner; finance, luncheon and publicity, Mrs. William Cunningham; 4-H, Mrs. Art Jones; health and safety, Mrs. Donald Lawson; research and legislative, Mrs. Lee Banks; and world citizenship, Mrs. John Staley. The vice chairman is Mrs. Bill McClellan and the secretary, Mrs. Guy Lutz.

This will be the last gathering of the unit members until the regular meetings start in October, and will be as in the previous years, the third Wednesday of each month. The place set for the first meeting has not yet been decided upon.

CALAPOOIA CLUB HEARS ACTIVITIES REPORT

Calapooia Women's Club met at the clubhouse on Wednesday with Pearl Hand, Sylvia Manning and Mrs. Warner as hostesses. A potluck dinner was served at 12:30 p.m. to members and friends.

The business meeting was called to order by the president, Maude Cole. Reports of committees show that the new chairs had arrived; the care packages are sent to a needy family each month; and a thank you was received from the 4-Hers who the club had sent to Corvallis to summer school.

The ways and means committee held a short meeting to make plans for the coming months. Mrs. Fraiser of Oakland was a guest at dinner. The next meeting will be held at the clubhouse, August 18, and all members and ladies of the community are urged to be present.

NAVY MOTHERS TO PICNIC MONDAY

Navy Mothers Club will hold a picnic Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock at Umpqua Park. Members of the orchestra, who played for the Navy Mothers dance at the VA recently, are especially invited to attend.
