

Vietnamese Miserable On Trek Away From Area Under Communist Control

SON TAY, Indochina (U.P.) — The film already glazes the Vietnamese woman's unseeing eyes. Her mouth open and closes in slow, agonizing gasps.

Each tired, wheezing breath could be her last. Fresh blood stains the bright red bandage where a foot had been before she stepped on a mine this morning.

A pool of darker red spreads on the dirty mud-colored stretcher on which she lies.

Her Vietnamese soldier husband places a tender hand under her jaw as if to ease its painful working. He does not know what else to do as he looks long at her face, then closes his eyes. He does not weep.

For her, it is probably the end of the evacuation route that was to have taken her first to Hanoi, then to Haiphong, eventually to somewhere below the Geneva partition line that cuts Viet Nam in half.

Only One of Host
She is only one of the host of pro-French Vietnamese who are pouring into Hanoi, seeking evacuation away from the oncoming control — and possibly vengeance of the Communist-led Vietminh. Thousands are fleeing to Hanoi; millions are staying behind.

The woman's soldier husband is one of a handful of Vietnamese who managed a tiny French Union outpost, 10 miles up the river from sector headquarters here.

Riverman Rides Barrel Through Niagara Rapids

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont. (U.P.) — Major Lloyd Hill rode a bobbing steel barrel Friday through the swirling Niagara River rapids — not far from the spot where Prospect Point and part of the American Falls collapsed Wednesday.

Escaped Con Receives Amnesty In Missouri

CINCINNATI (U.P.) — A pastry chef who gave himself up to police after escaping from the Jefferson City, Mo., Prison Farm, today is free to start a new life with his bride.

After marrying her recently, 25-year-old Cecil W. Hamm told his bride he had escaped from Missouri with only 12 days remaining of his sentence and was wanted on two false check charges there. She pleaded with him to turn himself in so they could start over again with a clean slate.

After he told police he wanted to make restitution for the bad checks, Gov. Frank J. Lausche refused to honor extradition papers for his return to Missouri. Yesterday Judge Ralph B. Kohnen dismissed a fugitive charge which had been filed against him.

move and resettle some 700,000 persons. American officials in South Viet Nam already are supplying medicine, food, 2,000 tents, and roofing for 50,000 dwelling units.

The Americans say that is only the beginning. Acting Economic Air Director Paul Everett estimates the present 25 million dollars a year in U. S. aid will have to be quadrupled to help with resettlement.

There was little sign of concrete preparation for the refugees in Hanoi, however. The vanguard, three thousand Vietnamese Catholics, poured in last night from Bae Ninh and Phu Lang Thuong and had to find shelter in a church school.

A policeman on duty nearby said he believed their coming had taken city authorities by surprise.
