

Proposed Indian Fishing Camp Draws Protests

THE DALLES — A fishing camp for Indians on the Columbia River near The Dalles Dam is being erected by Army Engineers despite protests of the Oregon Fish Commission and Wasco County. The work is being done with $50,000 Congress provided to compensate Indians for fishing grounds lost when Bonneville Dam was built, said Lt. Col. John A. Graf, of the Portland district engineer's office. The project has nothing to do with pending destruction of the Celilo Falls Indian fishery by construction of The Dalles Dam. M. T. Hoy, state fisheries director, said that from the camp site about two miles east of here, Indians will be able to carry on large-scale fishing in the immediate area of The Dalles Dam fish ladders. He said this will injure salmon runs trying to clear the dam. Ward Weber, Wasco County Commissioner, said the county objects on the ground that the camp might become another Indian village, resulting in social problems that arise when large groups live together under substandard conditions. The camp will be transferred to the Interior Department for administration, Graf said.

Fires Burn Grass, Destroy Home In Yoncalla Area

By MRS. GEORGE EDES
The Yoncalla fire siren has been heard twice in the last week. On July 26 a grass fire at the Harold Rogers home was soon extinguished with buckets of water and a garden hose. On Sunday night, the fire siren again warned the people of a fire. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ward McElmurry, west of town, was completely burned. The fire was of unknown origin. The family was at home at the time of the fire, but they were unable to save anything except the clothing they were wearing. The house was a two-story home and has been built for a number of years. Neighbors and the Yoncalla Fire Dept. answered the call, but the dry lumber in the old building was ablaze before help could arrive.

over the weekend. They also attended the reunion of the Drain Normal School. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Morin are being congratulated on the arrival of a son, Leo Darrel, born July 26 at the Cottage Grove Hospital. Mrs. Morin will be remembered as Doris Atkinson, former Yoncalla High School teacher.

RUSHING THE SEASON—...atures in the mid 90's, the last thing in the world Harry Noblet, of Halifax, Pa., wanted was this trailer loaded with 15 tons of coal which landed in his living room. The steering device locked on driver Raymond Pfeinsnyder and the trailer sideswiped a car, left the road and plunged into the house. Slight lacerations were his only injuries.

Broke, Hungry Angler Hauls In Money, Food
NARUTO, Japan — Kamekichi Matsumoto, 58, broke and hungry, went fishing for his supper. He got a bite, and hauled in a big octopus. The octopus was clucking tightly in its tentacles a purse containing more than 7,000 yen (about $20). Matsumoto ate the octopus and reported the money to police. If no one claims it, he can have it. The people of the Eastern Samoos are classed as the purest, racially, of all the Polynesian peoples, says the National Geographic Society.
