A pretty wedding took place Friday, July 30, at the Roseburg Church of Christ when Carleta Cassidy and Donald Lewis were united in marriage at a double-ring ceremony with the Rev. Jesse Stevens of Eugene officiating at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cassidy of Winston, was given in marriage by her father, and was beautiful in a white lace and net, three-quarter length formal gown. She wore a finger-tip veil falling from a crown of seed pearls. Her bouquet was a single orchid surrounded by white carnations.

Maid of honor, Waunetta Mock, wore a light blue formal of lace and net and a corsage of pink carnations.

Betty Jo Gatewood of Grants Pass was flower girl, and Jimmy Mock was the ring bearer. Best man was Russell Harris, and ushers were Johnny Mock and Alvin Cassidy. Candelights were Glenda Lewis and Sandy Cassidy. Decorations in the church consisted of a trellis decorated with fern and snapdragons, and huge baskets of gladioli and roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Hudson and children, Silas and Elizabeth, sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because."

Approximately 100 guests attended the reception which followed the ceremony and was held in the church reception room. A decorated wedding cake was served with other refreshments.

For a wedding trip to the coast, the bride chose a sea-foam nylon dress with white accessories. The couple are now at home at the Myrtle Grove Apartments. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lewis of Brookway and is employed at Kelley's Texaco Station. The bride is employed at the Myrtle Grove Coffee Bar, and she attended the Roseburg and Canyonville schools. Mr. Lewis attended the Roseburg schools.

One of the season's loveliest weddings took place July 17 at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Roseburg, when Barbara Geraldine Bauer and Laudie Adamski, both of this city were married at two-thirty o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. Father Edmond Hyland officiated.

Two baskets of lilies flanked the altar, while pastel shades of roses were used in the other bouquets about the church. Mrs. Bauer played the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Robert Nevue, vocal soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a white satin and lace floor-length gown. Her veil was finger-tip in length and she carried a prayer book topped by a large white orchid.

Lenore Zaver, a cousin of the bride, was matron of honor, and wore a pink ballerina dress and carried a bouquet of roses. Val Fretwell and Harriet Shiel, bridesmaids, wore ballerina length dresses of orchid and carried bouquets of roses. Candy Bauer of Portland, sister of the bride, was flower girl and wore a blue ballerina-length gown.

Louis Adamski of Roseburg was best man for his brother and Bob Bauer, brother of the bride, and John Lautze were ushers.

A wedding reception followed at the Woman's Club with Lenore Zaver and Harriet Shiel acting as hostesses. Mrs. M. F. Rice served the coffee and Mrs. Donald Wink, an aunt of the bride, served the punch. Mrs. William Phillips had charge of the guest book and the gifts were in charge of Mrs. Harvey Reinke, Salem, a sister of the bridegroom.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included the bride's mother, Mrs. Harold Selk, St. Helens; her father, Herman Bauer, Portland; the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Adamski, and family, of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Reinke and Mr. and Mrs. Gary Adamski and family of Salem.

For traveling the bride chose a pink suit with brown accessories and an orchid corsage. Following a honeymoon to coast points, Mr. and Mrs. Adamski are now at home to their friends in the Terrace Apartments.

The bride attended St. Helens High School and is employed as a clerk by E. R. Buckingham in the Rexall Drug Store. The bridegroom is employed as a pharmacist by Mr. Buckingham at the Rexall Drug Store.
