Hasbargen, of this city. The wedding took place in the garden at the L. E. Shinn home. The Shinn's are close friends of the bride's grandparents. (Picture by Clark's Studio).

A lovely garden wedding took place at the L. E. Shinn residence Friday, July 24, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon when Eva Lorene Cloud and Verlyn Carl Hasbargen were united in marriage by the Rev. W. A. Sylvester of St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

The bridal party took its place in an archway, which was attractive with baskets of white gladioli and baby breath. Flowers used in the bouquets were from the lovely Shinn gardens.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a gown of white sloopier satin with fitted bodice and lace trim. She wore a finger tip veil over the face and carried a white Bible, given to her by the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of red roses. The lovely gown was made by the bride's sister, Mrs. Olive Vaughn, who was maid of honor and wore a gown of baby blue taffeta and carried a bouquet of red variegated pom pom dahlias.

Bridesmaids were Miss Mary Gundiach, who wore pink taffeta and carried yellow and white gladioli; and Miss Betty Sittaydohar, who wore turquoise blue taffeta and carried rose colored pom poms.

Mrs. Sylvester played favorite classical numbers preceding the ceremony and accompanied Nancy Fromdahl, who sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Wedding Prayer."

Guests at the wedding were Don E. Hasbargen and Vernon Teater, ring bearer was Alan Lee Vaughn, flower girl was Kathy Lynn Vaughn, niece of the bride, from Modesto, Calif.

Mothers of the couple both wore navy blue gowns and corsages of tuberosus begonias with a baby breath spray.

About 95 friends and relatives attended the ceremony and reception, which was held on the back lawn at the Shinn home. Lovely refreshments which included a three tiered wedding cake, were served by Mrs. E. C. Aderholt and Mrs. Simmy Cruise, sister and sister-in-law of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Cloud of Sutherlin and attended school at Hilmar, Calif. She is employed at the Umpqua Hotel. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hasbargen of Roseburg and is attending the Roseburg School of Business. He is a former Minnesota resident.

Following a wedding trip to Eugene and the Oregon Coast, the couple are at home at 645 Fullerton St., Roseburg.

THE WEDDING PARTY of Miss Elva Scroggins and Leslie Johnson, who were married July 18, at the First Christian Church in Winston, is pictured above. The bride is the daughter of Ruby E. Scroggins of Winston and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Johnson, also of Winston. (Picture by Winston Studio).

Shower Party Honors Mrs. Dale Christian

Mrs. A. E. Hassler entertained at a charming pink and blue shower party Wednesday evening at her home in compliment to Mrs. Dale Christian, summer flowers formed a pretty motif for the occasion.

Games were played with prizes going to Mrs. Christian, Mrs. Robert Hyder, and Mrs. George Miller. Lovely gifts were presented to the guest of honor, Mrs. Hassler, assisted by Miss Jo Ann Miller, served delicious refreshments later in the evening to Mrs. Christian and: Mrs. Elton Jackson, Mrs. Tom Roer and daughter, Linda; Mrs. Ed Fery, Mrs. George Miller, Mrs. V. T. Jackson, Mrs. R. G. Baldwin, Mrs. Robert Hyder, Mrs. Alan Miller, Mrs. James Rathford and Miss Carolyn Su Jackson.

The First Christian Church at Winston was the scene of a very pretty wedding Sunday, July 18, when Elva Scroggins, daughter of Ruby E. Scroggins, of Winston and Leslie Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Johnson, also of Winston, were united in marriage.

The Rev. Rinke Feenstra performed the 1:30 p.m. double ring ceremony before a large number of relatives and friends. Candelabra and baskets of majestic daisies and gladioli were used in decorating the church.

Proceeding the ceremony Miss Donna Keely sang "My Happiness" accompanied by Mrs. Glenn Ryder, who also played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a full-skirted waltz length gown of Chantilly lace over white bridal satin.

The gown was fashioned with pointed sleeves and scalloped bodice and hem. Tiny white satin buttons fastened the bodice at the back. Her veil of tulle was held in place by a satin headpiece with rhinestones. The gown was designed and fashioned by Mrs. Roy Simmons. The bride carried a bouquet of carnations with a large orchid atop. She wore a necklace of rhinestones matching the head-dress, and carried a lace handkerchief.

Candlelighters, Miss Iva Feers and Miss Arlene Pulley, wore gowns of pink and of yellow.

Matron of honor, Mrs. James Prowell, was gowned in sheer pink nylon and carried a nosegay of white carnations. Bridesmaids, Miss Mariene Pruitt and Miss Shirley Withers wore gowns of corded and of blue, and also carried nosegays of white carnations.

James McCallister was best man. David and George Johnson were ushers.

Ringbearer Curtis Welch carried the rings on a white satin, heart-shaped pillow. Flower girl, Lynn Marie Pritt wore a dress of green nylon.

A reception followed the ceremony and was held in the community hall with approximately 150 guests present.

The lace covered table was centered with a large three tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature bridal couple; tiny bells encircled the cake, which was served by Ruby Thier and Jeanette Sanders, sisters of the bridegroom. Mrs. James McCallister and Mrs. Roy Pritt served the punch.

Miss Nancy Smith was in charge of the guest book, and Ella Johnson and Mitzi Dowdy arranged the gifts.

Both the bride and the bridegroom attended the Roseburg schools. Following a honeymoon at Crater Lake the couple are now at home on Gregory Avenue in Winston.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Bob Johnson of Eugene, and Pearl Sanders of Glendale and her son, J. D. of Corvallis.
