TENMILE CAMP FIRE GIRLS HAVE MEETING

The Tenmile Camp Fire groups were well represented at Camp Tyee. From the Cheek-cham group were: Lola Butts, Sally and Mary Erbe, Carol Burr, Nancy Sypher and Sally Ison. From the We-La-Ta-Ya group were: Delores Roth and Leda Petheren.

Mrs. Audrey Rust, leader for the We-La-Ta-Ya group, reports that they will not meet again until after the opening of school.

The Cheek-cham group held its regular meeting at the home of the leader, Mrs. Gladys Burr. The girls made flowers and animals from craft Chenille. Sally Ison and Nancy Sypher danced the "Highland Fling" and "The Irish Washerwoman," which they had learned at camp, and sang two of their camp songs. Each of the girls wrote a short note to Carol Burr while she was at camp and a continuous letter to Nancy Sypher and Sally Ison. Plans were completed for the ceremonial and camp-out. The girls made $10 from the sale of greeting cards, which will be used for beads and other necessary items.

Refreshments were served by Sharon Martin, Sally Ison and Rita Freedman. Those present for the meeting were: Sally Ison, Sharon Cote, Sharon Martin, Linda Sherman, Marlene Bowles, Nancy Sypher and Rita Freedman and assistant leader, Norma Martin, and Mrs. Burr.
