MR. AND MRS. JAMES EDSON YOUNG, above, cut the traditional first piece of their wedding cake following their marriage June 12 in Stewart Memorial Chapel at the San Francisco Theological Seminary, San Anselmo, Calif. The bride, Patricia Ann Hull, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Groneweg, of Ontario, and formerly of San Bernardino. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Young of Roseburg.

Two seminary students, Miss Patricia Ann Hull and James Edson Young, were married in reverent double ring ceremonies, June 12, in Stewart Memorial Chapel at San Francisco Theological Seminary, San Anselmo, Calif., where both are students.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Groneweg, of Ontario, formerly of San Bernardino.

Opening the service were musical selections "Draw Near To Me," by Bach, sung by William C. Groneweg, the bride's father; and "We Pledge Our Love," by Bohm, sung by Joanne Grace; and "Bridal March," played by Wilbur F. Russell, organist.

The charge and prayer of invocation were given by the officiating minister, Dr. Arnold B. Come, professor of systematic theology at the Seminary. The couple gave their pledge of troth, the holy scriptures were read by the pastor, and the hymn "Spirit of God" was sung.

At the close of the hymn was the marriage followed by a prayer of consecration and the declaration by Dr. Come, and the hymn "God of Our Life." The minister closed with the benediction which was followed by "Wedding March."

Donna Hillard, formerly of San Bernardino was matron of honor. She wore a dress of deep blue taffeta, full length, with a pleated yoke, and cap sleeves and she carried a blue and rose nosegay.

Best man was James B. Wright of Philadelphia, Penn., a student at the Seminary. Ushering honors were shared by Bert Young, brother of the bridegroom, and Ray Woods, a student at the school.
