Local Dry Cleaner Offer Hints On Care Of New Summer Cotton Dresses

Mr. Clarence Honn, owner of New Method Cleaners claims to have good news for the girls who like those new Summer Cottons to wit: you can keep 'em looking like new without the thankless chore of home washing.

"The secret," Mr. Honn said, "is the new Sanitone Style-Set finish that restores 'body' to the fabric.

"It's better than starch," says Mr. Honn, "because it doesn't make garments stiff and crackly. Besides, it doesn't clog the pores of the fabric which helps to keep the wearer cool (which is the whole idea behind wearing cotton in the summer anyhow)." Another advantage claimed for this finish is its lasting qualities even in hot, muggy weather. Mr. Honn went on to report that Style-Set is a feature of his Sanitone Cotton Clinic, the subject of a recent ad in both the Saturday Evening Post and Ladies' Home Journal.
