

MRS. ALDO DONALD PARR, above, poses in the garden at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. Elmer Carlson, 2638 N. E. 17th Ave., Portland, following her marriage Aug. 7, which took place at the Baptist Church in Portland with the reception following in the garden at the Carlson home. The bride was Dorothy Ellen Carlson before her marriage. The bridegroom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Parr, 710 E. Lane St., Roseburg. (Picture by Gladys Gilbert, Portland).

Of much interest to their many Roseburg friends is the marriage of Miss Dorothy Ellen Carlson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. Elmer Carlson, Portland, to Aldo Donald Parr, only son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Parr of Roseburg, at the Baptist Church in Portland, Aug. 7. Dr. Weldon M. Wilson performed the impressive ceremony at four o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of 350 guests. White gladioli, daisies and stock formed the floor bouquets, which were interspersed by five candelabra holding tall white candel-

Satin ribbons and bows knotted with gladioli, daisies and ferns, marked the center aisle. Preceding the ceremony, William E. Elliott sang, "At Dawning," "I Love Thee," and "O Perfect Love." The traditional wedding marches were played. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was very beautiful in a "Cahill" gown fashioned with a white satin bodice trimmed with alencon lace and a bouffant skirt formed the floor bouquets, which were interspersed by five candelabra holding tall white candel- of matching alencon lace. She carried a nosegay of white roses and bouvardia. Mrs. Ronald E. Ogle, King City, Calif., was matron of honor for her sister and bridesmaids were: Miss Lyn Hartley, Miss Joanne Pendergrass, Mrs. Ralph Rydman, all of Portland and Mrs. Roger Temple of Salem. They wore waltz-length gowns of ice blue satinique. The matron of honor carried a nosegay of red roses and the bridesmaids carried nosegays

(Continued On Page 7 Col. 6)

ENGAGEMENT TOLD — The engagement of Verna M. Palmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Marsh, Grants Pass, to Samuel J. Shoemaker, son of Mrs. S. J. Shoemaker and the late Mr. Shoemaker, of Roseburg, was told at a five o'clock dinner party at the Elks Club dining room in Grants Pass, Friday, Aug. 20. The centerpiece was a long, white satin covered ring-box banked with pale pink gladioli. Inside the ring-box was a 12" gold foil engagement ring with a large white gardenia as the center stone. At each end of the flower-banked box were pink candles to match the gladioli. During the dessert-course the Petit-fours holding miniature copies of the centerpiece and bearing the names of the engaged couple, were served to Mrs. S. J. Shoemaker, Mrs. Edward H. Marsh, Mrs. Alvin Bullard, an aunt; Mrs. Kenneth Winterbottom, a sister; Mrs. Paul Hoff, Marion Jackson, Evelyn McCullough, Bernice Joyce, Melva Williams, Agnes Bolin, Martha Morrison and Claudia McFarland. The wedding has been planned for late December.

MR. AND MRS. PARKS SCHNEIDER, above, pose for their wedding portrait following their marriage at Lincoln Avenue Presbyterian Church in Pasadena, Calif., July 18. The bride was Mildred Ruth Dryden of Peoria, Ill., before her marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Schneider are now at home at 932 Riverside Drive, Laurelwood. (Picture by J. Allen Hawkins Studio, Pasadena).

Lincoln Avenue Presbyterian Church in Pasadena, Calif., was the scene of a pretty wedding when Mildred Ruth Dryden of Peoria, Ill., and Parks Schneider of Roseburg were married Sunday, July 18. The Rev. Oscar R. Lowry officiated at the impressive double-ring ceremony at 4 p.m. in the presence of about 30 friends and relatives. The bride and bridegroom exchanged ancestral wedding rings, which were heirlooms belonging to him. As was the tradition in Bavaria the couple inserted little fingers in one linked wedding ring. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a floor-length gown of ice-blue chantilly-type lace. The fitted bodice had a sweetheart neckline, edged with pearls and an illusion yoke with tiny puffed sleeves. The skirt was of lace over nylon net and satin. She wore a veil of ice-blue imported silk illusion held in place by a headpiece of lace piped with pearls. Matron of honor was Mrs. Joseph Davis wearing a gown of beige lace in ballerina length and a half-hat of braid and tulle. Miss Shirley Marie Stever was bridesmaid. She wore a pink lace ballerina length gown with short sleeved bolero and matching slippers. Her headdress was a pink half-hat of braid with a tulle veil. The bride carried a bouquet of white carnations and curly asters showering down in sprays of ribbon and centered with two white orchids. Her attendants carried pink sweetheart roses and curly pink and blue asters. Best man was Carlyle H. Humphrey, and Peter Geddes Jr. was usher. Music consisted of organ solos and a vocal solo "The Lord's Prayer." The church sanctuary was decorated with palm ferns and gladioli of various colors. A reception was held in the church chapel with Mrs. Kenneth Stever, sister of the bride, in charge. A beautiful three-tiered wedding cake, decorated with white bells, and roses was served with other refreshments. The serving table was centered with the cake banked with tallisman roses and flanked with crystal candle holders holding tall white tapers. For her wedding trip to Santa Monica and Catalina Islands the bride wore a navy blue and white summer tweed with red accessories and a white orchid corsage. The couple are now at home at 932 Riverside Drive, Roseburg, where Mr. Schneider is a salesman for Douglas Supply Co. He is the son of the late Mrs. Elizabeth A. Schneider and attended school in Chicago. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Dryden and attended Peoria High School and Bradley University in Illinois.

MRS. WAYNE D. MUSGROVE, above, who before her marriage July 3 was Kay Lucas, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lucas of Eugene. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Musgrove of Sutherlin. Mr. and Mrs. Musgrove will make their home in Eugene. (Picture by Kennell Ellis, Eugene).

Miss Kay Lucas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lucas, of Eugene, and Wayne D. Musgrove, son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Musgrove of Sutherlin, were married in Eugene, July 3. They exchanged vows at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Potter. The Rev. J. W. Stephens of the Church of Christ performed the ceremony at two o'clock in the afternoon. The bride wore a gown with lace bodice over taffeta, and with nylon tulle yoke and skirt. The gown had tapered sleeves and a lace collar. Her chapel-length veil was held by a tricorn-shaped tiara. She carried orchids and stephanotis. Mr. Lucas gave his daughter in marriage. The bride's sister, Mrs. Ward Sherman, of Los Angeles was matron of honor, wearing a dress of orchid nylon net with flecks of gold in the bodice. She carried a bouquet of Rose Elfie and white baby gladioli. Junior bridesmaid was Diane Lasher of Eugene, a cousin of the bride. She wore a ballerina-length dress of pink nylon and carried Rose Elfie and white baby gladioli. Lt. John Musgrove Jr., of the U.S. Air Force, was best man for his brother, Ushers were Daria Lakey of Drain, and Ward Sherman of Los Angeles. The home was decorated with white delphiniums, pink daisies and pink carnations. Charles Shaw of Vici, Okla., sang "O Perfect Love" and "Through the Years," accompanied by Wally Bullard. After the ceremony, a reception was given in the garden of Mr. and Mrs. Potter's home. Mrs. Michael Taylor of Sutherlin cut the cake, and Miss Aline Ziolkowski of Portland, Miss Betty Trommier and Miss Patricia Kuhnenn, both of Eugene, served coffee and punch. Mrs. David Sams of Eugene was in charge of the guest book, and Mrs. Bryce Morehouse of Fairfield, Calif., was in charge of the gifts. Miss Lucas was graduated by the University of Oregon, and Mr. Musgrove by the College of Mortuary Science at Los Angeles. The couple took a wedding trip to the Oregon Coast, the bride wearing an ice-blue faille dress with white accessories as a going-away costume. They are now making their home at 558 E. 16th Ave. Eugene, where Mr. Musgrove is employed at Simon - Lounsherry Mortuary.

Linda Carter Honored On Twelfth Birthday

Linda Carter celebrated her twelfth birthday at a delightful party Tuesday afternoon at her home. Lovely gifts were presented to Linda from: Karen Parrott, Toni Perkins, Darlene Carew, Donna and Carol Evans, Carol Anderson, Patsy Fromdahl, Susan Siefarth, Susan Carter and Becky Whytal. Balloons and crepe paper streamers formed the colorful decorations for the party. The guest of honor's mother, Mrs. E. W. Carter, served birthday cake, ice-cream and punch to the guests following the enjoyable social hour of games.

MR. AND MRS. EMIL C. SMITH, above, pose for their wedding portrait following their marriage at the First Christian Church Sunday. The bride, Joan Leach, is the daughter of Mrs. Jennie Leach of Roseburg and the bridegroom is the nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Barker of Glide. (Picture by Miller-Moderne Studio).

Miss Joan Leach, daughter of Mrs. Jennie Leach of Roseburg, became the bride of Emil C. Smith, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Barker of Glide, Sunday. The impressive double-ring ceremony took place at the First Christian Church at 4 p.m. with the Rev. Newell Morgan officiating. Miss Marilyn Myers sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Frances Lintott, who also played the traditional wedding processional and recessional. The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Homer Kronke, was lovely in a white nylon lace over Egyptian cotton ballerina gown. A cap of lace and pearls held her fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of red rose buds. Miss Sonia Lander, maid of honor, was gowned in blue and white nylon with lace trim. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Alvin Smith, Glide, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Elmer L. Giles and Joseph V. Fennell, cousins of the bride. The bride's mother wore a bemberg sheer of gold and aqua print with a matching jacket. Her accessories were white and her corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's aunt wore a white and aqua nylon print with matching jacket. Her accessories were white and her corsage of pink carnations. Decorations in the church consisted of baskets of white gladioli, pink and blue hydrangea, and candelabras. A reception at the bride's home followed the ceremony. The bride's CUTTING THE FIRST PIECE of their wedding cake are Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Forehand at the reception following their marriage Aug. 15. The bride, Anna Lou Wilson, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Harold Wilson of Roseburg and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Forehand of Hon, Ark. (Picture by Chris of Fredrickson's Photo Lab).

A pretty wedding was held Sunday, Aug. 15, at the First Methodist Church of Roseburg when Anna Lou Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Harold Wilson of Roseburg, and Robert J. Forehand of Los Angeles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Forehand of Hon, Ark. were married. The Rev. Ellsworth Tilton performed the impressive ceremony at 9 p.m. in the presence of 150 relatives and friends. Tall white gladioli with pink centers in large baskets and white candles in candelabra formed the church decorations. Mrs. Richard Hoskins, organist, played the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Ellsworth Tilton, who sang, "I Take Thee Dear" and "Our Wedding Prayer." The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a white satin and tulle gown with fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of white gladioli and yellow roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Marian Gillett and Miss Shirley Forehand, niece of the bridegroom, wore powder blue net over taffeta gowns and carried bouquets of rose carnations, as did Miss Zonell Wilson, maid of honor and sister of the bride, and who wore a yellow net over taffeta gown. The candle lighters were Miss Ada Hubbard, and Miss Rosa Hubbard, Richard Gardner Jr. was best man, and ushers were Jaycee Harrington and Walter Carter. A wedding reception followed the ceremony in the church parlors. Mrs. Ralph Snyder served the cake; Mrs. Leo C. Gillett served the coffee; and Mrs. Thomas Short the punch. The guest book was in charge of Helen Hubbard. The bride attended Roseburg High School and was employed by the Douglas Credit Bureau. out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Forehand, Hon. Ark.; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Forehand, Turlock, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Al Porter, Riddle; and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garren of Riddle.