BROTHLY CARLSON BECOMES BRIDE OF ALDO DONALD PARR

of white gladioli and bouvardia. Robert Warren Scott of Eugene was best man and Brent Bates, Eugene; William Johnson, Seattle; Don Delaney, Portland, and Roger Temple, Salem, were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Carlson wore a soft grey gown with iridescent sequin bodice and mauve-colored hat and accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a champagne colored dress with dark brown hat and accessories. Her corsage was of red rosebuds.

The reception followed in the beautiful garden at the Carlson home. The bride's table was centered by the elaborately decorated and tiered wedding cake topped by a silver cup bearing the date and the names of the bride and bridegroom.

Following the wedding reception, Dr. and Mrs. Carlson entertained the bridal party and out-of-town guests at a dinner. They also entertained the bridal party and out-of-town guests at a dinner-party following the wedding rehearsal Friday evening. The Monday before the wedding, the bride entertained members of her bridal party at a charming affair, at which time she presented gifts to them.

Among out-of-town guests going to Portland for the wedding included the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Parr, Roseburg; his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Doss; and his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Bates, and children, Richard and Sandra, all of Medford; his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Parr, of Talent; his aunt, Mrs. Fred Haymes, of Redding, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Metzger and children, Donna and Johnny, and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Ricketts and son, Duke, of Roseburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Davis and children, Glenn and David, of Lebanon, formerly of this city.

For traveling the bride chose a white linen ensemble with a light blue coat. Following a honeymoon to Harrison Hot Springs and Vancouver, B.C., Mr. and Mrs. Parr are now at home to their friends at 2400 S.E. 51st St., Portland.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Parr were graduated from University of Oregon. Mrs. Parr is a member of Delta Gamma sorority and a music teacher in the Portland Public Schools. The bridegroom, a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity, majored in radio at University of Oregon and is now employed by KPOJ radio station in Portland. Both the bride and bridegroom were prominent in campus affairs during their university years.
