Honesty Best Policy, Cab Driver Concludes

NEW YORK (AP) — Honesty paid off to the tune of $1,900 for taxi driver Fritz Morris, who had turned over to police a bag of jewels he found in his cab.

The jewelry had been lost by Mrs. Abraham Scheer, wife of a Fifth Avenue glove firm executive.
An insurance company representative set the value at $19,000.
So Morris got a 10 per cent reward and Mrs. Scheer, in turning over a check to the cabbie, said:
"I am thrilled. It's a pleasure to know there are honest people in the world."

You could win!
Name the mystery song when Bill Cullen calls and win the fabulous jackpot.
