

Airline Pilots Sign 'Truce' Agreement

WASHINGTON (AP) — American Airlines planes take to the air at midnight tonight for the first time in 25 days under a "truce" agreement between the company and its pilots, who struck over flying longer than eight hours at a stretch jointly by A. Dittapassale, labor relations director of American Airlines, and Clarence N. Sayen, president of the AFL Air Line Pilots Assn. Sayen termed the agreement a "truce," pending recommendations of arbitrator David L. Cole of Paterson, N. J.
