

Look, A New Baby Has Come To Our House

Society

LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

SATURDAY, AUGUST 28, 1954

—The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. 5

ATTORNEY AND MRS. CHARLES WOODRICH and daughter, Wendy, 2, and baby son, John Speer, 1-month-old, pose for a family portrait in the living room of their beautiful new country home in Ridgeview.

MR. AND MRS. LARRY MITCHELL and son, Allen, 6-months-old, are pictured below at their new home at 3005 Porter St. Larry is associated in business with his father in Len Mitchell's store. On account of illness, the Mitchells' 2½-year-old daughter, Karen, does not appear in the picture.

PROUDEST PARENTS in Roseburg are Mr. and Mrs. Winston Gilchrist, above, 1213 Winchester St., who pose with their baby son, George Winston, who was born Aug. 9. George was wide awake and seemed happy to have his picture taken.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES WRIGHT (center picture) and their baby son, 4½-months-old Gregory Phillip, and the family pet Boxer, Hans, are pictured at the new home of the Wrights on Beaumont Street in Hucrest. Mr. Wright is a patrolman with the State Police with headquarters in Roseburg.

ROBERT NEVUE, who is manager of Miller's, poses in the picture below with his three favorite gals in Roseburg, Mrs. Nevue and their two daughters, Patricia, 2, and Elizabeth, 2½ months. They make their home in Laurelwood.

All Pictures On This Page
By "Chris" Of
Fredrickson's Photo Lab