

THE HOSTETTER-BOND wedding party poses for a picture following the marriage Aug. 8 of Rose Emily Bond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theo Bond of Roseburg, and

A pretty wedding was held at St. George's Episcopal Church of Roseburg when Rose Emily Bond, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theo Bond, of Roseburg, and Howey Dean Hostetter, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Hostetter of Portland, were united in marriage Sunday afternoon, Aug. 8.

More than 150 guests witnessed the double ring ceremony, which was performed by Father Alfred S. Tyson. The altar was decorated with white gladioli and flanked by seven tiered candelabra with tall white candles and festooned with trailing ivy vine. The pews of the church were marked by large white satin bows. Acolytes were Howard Turner Jr. and John Adams.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Gordon Stewart played a group of the bride's favorite classical selections. Harold Mobley sang "Lord Grant Thy Servant" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a gown of white Chantilly lace, fashioned with a scalloped neck line, tucked basque waist and a very full skirt. Her finger tip veil of illusion was held in place by a Juliet cap of lace and seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book topped by a large white, yellow throated orchid.

Mrs. Hallie Steinhauer, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her dress, like those of the three bridesmaids, Misses Sally Hein, Lois Zahler and Diane Weeks, was of deep blue crystalline silk. Each attendant carried an old fashioned nosegay of pink and white baby mums and wore a headpiece of sheer net lace. Debbie Bernard was flower girl and was dressed in a sheer nylon pink short dress and carried a basket of rose petals.

Francis Hostetter, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and ushers were George DeBusay, Richard Gilbert and Jim Withrow. The bride's mother wore an ash-colored crepe dress with light blue accessories. Mrs. Hostetter wore a rose lace dress with beige accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of gladioli.

A reception followed in the church parlors. Lovely bouquets of white gladioli and blue Easter reed daisies were arranged about the room. The bride's table was graced with an all white wedding cake. Blue satin bows and old fashioned nosegays were also used as table decorations. After the bride and bridegroom cut the first piece of their wedding cake, it was served by Mrs. William Sumner and Mrs. John Morgan. Mrs. Roman Lilly served punch, and Mrs. Barton

Harper poured coffee. Assisting in serving were Miss Carolyn Lilly and Miss Marcia Bernard. Mrs. Paul Jackson had charge of the guest book, and Miss Willa Wilshire arranged the gifts.

For traveling, the bride chose a silk wool one piece princess style dress with white accessories and a white orchid. Following a honeymoon to the coast, Mr. and Mrs. Hostetter will reside in Portland, where both are completing their senior year of college.

Out of town guests were: Frances Hostetter, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hostetter, Deane E. Fay, Carolyn, Margaret and Marion Lilly, Mr. Dean Morehouse, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Wiggins, George Des Brisay, Diane Weeks, James Campbell, Richard Gilbert, Lois Zahler, all of Portland; Lucile R. Goodman, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. John Lyons, Bend; Mr. and Mrs. Art Hartman and family, Dexter; Mrs. John Wold, Salem; Mrs. E. Milne, Springfield; Miss Rhea Brown, Springfield; Marie Singleton, San Diego; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Elliott and Janet, Oakridge; Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jackson, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. John Withrow, Mr. and Mrs. N. K. Lilly, Corvallis; Jerry Hollman, Mr. and Mrs. Barton T. Harper, Oakland, Calif.; and Sally Hein, Milwaukee.
