CAMP FIRE GIRLS START MEMBERSHIP DRIVE THIS MONTH
 Over 1000 Camp Fire girls in Roseburg, along with 250 adult volunteers in the Camp Fire family, will embark on their annual ten-week membership march this month, according to an announcement made today by Mrs. Mona Hult, council president. The slogan of the campaign, which will extend through Nov. 30, is "Be Friendly—Make Friends—Join the Camp Fire Girls!"

In announcing the drive to enlist more girls and adult volunteers in the Camp Fire program, Mrs. Hult released a commendatory message from Mayor Croft. His message reads: "I strongly urge every civic-minded man and woman in Roseburg to take advantage of the current invitation to join the Camp Fire circle. Camp Fire is a real family affair, where the influence of the home is of paramount concern in the program enjoyed by the girls. Women make their most valuable contribution through their roles as group leaders, guiding youngsters along the trail to happy living. Men, along with women, contribute to the Camp Fire program by serving as group sponsors and by taking an active role on committees, where their special skills can be used to full advantage."

"Although there are many girls in our community who are enjoying the fun and friendship activities of Camp Fire, there are countless others who are eager to join groups," Mayor Croft continued in his statement. "These are the girls we want to reach but in order to extend membership benefits to them we must enroll more adult volunteers—the backbone of any youth organization. I sincerely hope that the hand of friendship, being offered by Camp Fire girls and potential Camp Fire girls, will not be refused. They have our interest but they need our actual help. You can help by volunteering as a leader, sponsor, or committee member."

In line with their membership march, Camp Fire girls in Roseburg will make a special effort to enlist the support of more men and women volunteers by calling attention to the theme, "Make it a Family Affair!", which they have adopted for the campaign.

Camp Fire girls is a Central Douglas United Fund service.
