BOOSTER NIGHT RECENTLY ENJOYED BY LARGE NUMBER AT RIVERSDALE GRANGE

Booster night at Riversdale Grange was enjoyed by 119 attending. The program opened with the singing of hymns and the reading of the minutes. The program was presented by the officers and members of the grange.

The Master, Carl Youngren, welcomed the group and introduced the officers. He turned the program over to the lecturer, Esie Olson. The national master's address was read by the secretary, Anna Trozelle, and the state master's address was read by the treasurer, Homer Pattison. Reports of the chairman and officers were given by their respective committees and officers including: agriculture, W. D. Love; legislation, Norman Wicks; business agent, Kenneth Kissell; home economics, Ethel Welker; chaplain, Ethel Youngren; and lecturer, Esie Olson, who also gave a report on the community projects. Following community singing, Bob Matthews played the violin accompanied by Mrs. Matthews at the piano. The Riversdale Quartet, composed of Lyle Bostwick, tenor; Ted Melhoff, lead; James Daugherty, baritone; and W. D. Love, bass, sang several numbers. History highlights in tableaux were shown. The history was compiled by Catherine Matthews. The readers were Clifford Hess and Catherine Matthews.

Refreshments were served by Ethel Welker, Bess Johnson, Ethel Fuller, Ida Kuck and Ethel Youngren, after which a social time of dancing and cards followed.

FRIENDSHIP NIGHT HELD AT OAKLAND

Thursday, friendship night was observed at the Oakland OES meeting.

Visitors were Ray Martin, associate grand patron of Oregon; Lela Wimberly, past grand patron of Oregon; Grace Robertson, grand representative of Province of British Columbia; Mildred Whipple, grand representative of Delaware; and other members from Roseburg, Drain, Canyonville, Gardiner, Glendale, Eugene and Elton.

Honorary membership was conferred on Lela Wimberly and a drill was given by courtesy girls in her honor.

Decorations in the upstairs room were of fall flowers arranged in a star in colors of the organization, done by Irma Cornish and Doris Steinbach. The dining table was decorated with a similar arrangement. The refreshment committee was Nadine Stearns, chairman; Harry and Vera Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Sourhard, Vesta Cota, Wanda Hopkins, Ruth Bunch, Thelma Truitt, Virginia Stacy and Edna Bidwell.

INTERESTING TALKS GIVEN AT GARDEN CLUB

Oakland Garden Club met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. O. Bunch with Mrs. F. C. Fraser as co-hostess. The president, Mrs. L. F. Stearns, announced a course in flower arrangements to be held in Eugene, starting Oct. 19. Roll call was answered with a bird, favorite bird, the ant-litter bug campaign. Mrs. Leo Sparks gave a talk on planning and raising sweetpeas. Mrs. Howard Wahl demonstrated corset making. Beautiful bouquets of fall flowers were arranged about the rooms. The hostesses served delicious refreshments to 27 members and to Mrs. Leo Sparks, Mrs. A. W. Carlisle and Mrs. Van, guests.

LEADERS MEETING HELD WEDNESDAY

The first meeting of Camp Fire and Blue Bird leaders for the coming semester was held Wednesday in the basement of the Presbyterian Church.

A "get acquainted" game was played with Mrs. Shirley Spurgeon winning the first prize, and Mrs. Mary Lou Drake winning the second prize. After refreshments, served by Mrs. Dorothy Sherman, the meeting was called to order by Mrs. Edith Miller, president.

The meetings are to be held the second Tuesday of every month, from 1 to 3 o'clock, and baby-sitting arrangements can be made by calling either Mrs. Edith Miller, 3-6394, or Mrs. Ted Prusia, 2-1043.

Recently a record album of Camp Fire songs has been issued, two of which are available for loan to leaders by contacting the Camp Fire office. The office also has a record player, should it be needed. Additionally, there are funds for new books to add to the office library, and a committee composed of Mrs. Helen Niday, Mrs. Cora Prusia and Mrs. Zelpha McAllister was appointed to select those that would be of most benefit to leaders.

The Blue Bird leaders then discussed what they desired most in the way of material for the term work with Mrs. Helen Niday, who will bring ideas in handcraft, needlework and games to each future meeting.

The Camp Fire leaders discussed rank requirements and a membership drive.

GET-ACQUAINTED PARTY HELD TUESDAY EVENING

A large crowd of "hobos" met at the Benson School Gym Tuesday night for a "Get Acquainted Party." The theme being the "Spirit of the Open Road." Judging by the fun that was had by all that attended, the Benson PTA members felt that this was one of the most successful parties they have ever sponsored.

An independent committee chose Mrs. Archie Elliott and Robert McKee as the queen and king for the evening with Mrs. Kelly Bennett, last year's queen, crowning them.

The evening was spent playing hilarious games with appropriate prizes presented to the winners of bubble gum, cap pistols and all day suckers. Delicious refreshments were served as the grand finale of the evening.

CHURCH SOCIETY ATTENDS RALLY AT GRANTS PASS

Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church accepted an invitation to attend the fall rally and smorgasbord of the Baptist Missionary Society in Grants Pass, Sept. 16. A very fine program was presented consisting of a missionary address, pictures, devotions and special music. The smorgasbord was outstanding in color and variety of foods. Those attending from Roseburg were: Violeta West, Jessie Kiviera, Melba Mobley, Ethel Beaver, Theo Fee, Mable Krohn, Wanda McLean, Dixie Peavey, Ruth Haas, Mildred Ladd, Nettie Jurgens, Nora Page, Myrtle Jennings, Minnie Jacobson, Jessie Vinson, Gladys Weyel, Ann McLean, Edith Roberts, and Esther Gilliland.

MYRTLE CREEK GROUP SET FASHION SHOW AND CARD PARTY
