COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN PLEASED BY RESULTS AT CENTRAL JUNIOR HIGH

The efforts of the Central Junior High School PTA committee chairman really showed up at the recent meeting.

Highlights of the various committees are as follows: Program—"The Teenager in Home, School and Community" theme is being very effectively carried out by Mrs. Jim Stone, program chairman. The "Teenager in School," aspect is being handled first, and along this line, the next program will be put on by the teachers themselves with tentative plans for the teachers to use several students in simulative classes; so that the parents might get an insight into the present day teaching methods without actually visiting each class during school hours.

Mrs. Stone and her committee—Mrs. Harold Backen and Mrs. Bernard Young, expect to have many students in each program as is possible.

Membership: Through the efforts of Mrs. Norman John, treasurer, a student home room membership chairman was obtained in each home room. These chairmen in turn collect and record the membership dues brought to school by the students for their parents. The student membership chairmen are: Sharlene West, Patsy Gregory, Dolores Schilling, Dick Peterson, Beryl Currier, Linda Neal, Barbara Wood, Sandra Brown.

Barbara Gray, Charlene Packard, Elwood Heuston, Phyllis Pittman and Mignon Rich. These students are doing an excellent job.

Mrs. John reports that to date there are approximately 200 memberships.

Home Rooms: Mrs. C. E. Blakey and Mrs. Larry West advise that the home rooms are all lined up with competent room mothers and assistants. Each room mother in turn is ready to do her job in having her room take its turn in serving and furnishing refreshments for the PTA meetings; at chaperoning the dance lessons, and at acting as hosts at the meetings.

Projects: It was announced that the main project under consideration is the dance instruction to be sponsored by the PTA. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Chitwood, project chairman, stated that it was the plan for parents from the various home rooms to take turns chaperoning at the dances. By the time the lessons are completed, every parent in the school will have been called upon to help.

Refreshments: Mrs. Jerry Lyons, refreshment chairman and the room mother chairman for Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Johnson's home rooms, were complimented on the refreshments served at the last meeting. The chairman and assistants are Mrs. H. G. Jeffers, Mrs. William Gadow, Mrs. C. V. Montgomery and Mrs. W. B. Meredith.

Hospitality: Hans Stelzenmuller, hospitality chairman, provided soft music prior to the meeting and during the coffee hour.

Through the Chickowemay Camp Fire group, of which Mrs. Robert Cartwright is leader, name tags were provided for each of the 200 or more persons present at the meeting.

Publicity: The report of the publicity chairman, Max Dick, stressed the need for chairmen, officers and interested parties to keep him informed.
