

Long Test Favored For All-Star Rooks

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Coach Hampton Pool of the Los Angeles Rams favors an extra three-week tryout for National Football League rookies who perform in the annual pro-college All-Star game.

Pool, taking time off while preparing the Rams for their important game with the Detroit Lions Sunday, was asked Thursday at a Rams boosters meeting what he thought of letting such rookies stay on a pro squad after the normal out-of-town deadline.

Tonight's bout will be televised and broadcast by NBC at 10 p.m., EST.

Man Of Mystery Offers Bid For A's

CHICAGO (AP) — The meeting of American League club owners in Chicago Tuesday to try to decide what is going to happen, if anything, to their poor relatives, the Philadelphia Athletics, could be a stormy one.

At present, the man of mystery in the bidding for the club's franchise is Tommy Richardson of Williamsport, Pa., president of the Eastern League and a member of the A's board of directors.

He is a mystery only to the extent that nobody seems certain if he really has the backing of wealthy friends to the tune of $3,750,000 to match the bid of Arnold Johnson, the Chicago financier who wants to move the A's to Kansas City.

The Chicago Tribune Friday said it has learned that Richardson "has told intimates he has succeeded in raising funds to meet the $3,750,000 purchase price."

Will Harridge, American League president, told the Chicago Sun-Times "Johnson is the only bidder who has backed it up with real money."

As the props are being set, Bill Veeck is sitting in the wings. He is in Chicago as an "interested spectator." He can't help but think that another delay may give Los Angeles a chance to enter the auction.

Trotter Acclaimed

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Harlan, from the steel capital of Pittsburgh, put in a steel-clad claim to 3-year-old trotting championship honors Friday on the strength of one important victory.

After eating the dust of the Grand Circuit's fastest stoppers all season, the Pennsylvania plodder reached maturity in Thursday's Kentucky Futurity, a time-honored test second in esteem only to the Hambletonian.

He waited off and left Prince Victor and Darn Safe, the class of the sulky circuit ever since Hambletonian winner Newport Dream was sidelined by ailments.
