NEW! DEEP-DOWN WAVING
 WITH PATENTED OIL CREME Customizer

THESE DRAWINGS OF A HAIR, GREATLY ENLARGED, SHOW WHAT DEEP-DOWN WAVING IS

NOT THIS
 INSIDE layers of hair not waved at all. OUTSIDE waved all right.

NOT THIS
 OUTSIDE damaged by over-waving in order to wave INSIDE. INSIDE waved all right.

BUT THIS
 OUTSIDE AND INSIDE waved perfectly with CUSTOMIZED Nutri-Tonic. This is DEEP-DOWN waving.

★ Waves far gentler in little as 10 minutes.
 ★ Fastest permanent — start to finish.
 ★ Firmer, more durable curls without loss of softness and naturalness.

ONE IS "JUST RIGHT" FOR YOU
 Choose from 7 CUSTOMIZED permanents plus ORIGINAL Nutri-Tonic

- REGULAR — for normal hair.
- SUPER — for hard-to-wave hair.
- GENTLE — for easy-to-wave hair.
- BLEACHED OR DYED — for bleached, dyed or shampoo-tinted hair.
- CHILDREN'S PERMANENT — for the little sweethearts — under 12 years.
- SILVER-GRAY — for silver, gray or white hair.
- PIN CURL PERMANENT — waves and sets in 40 minutes or less.
- ORIGINAL NUTRI-TONIC — same as before... for those who prefer a single lotion that waves any and all types of hair.

ROSEBURG BAPTIST CIRCLES HAVE INTERESTING MEETINGS
 The Mary Butler Circle of the First Baptist Church met recently in the home of Mrs. Mae Crawford on S. Pine St. Mrs. Knigge, chairman, was in charge of the meeting. Mrs. Pauline Greenfield gave the devotion. In the absence of Mrs. Grace Richey, program chairman, Mrs. Knigge led a missionary quiz. Plans for the Oct. 29, general missionary meeting were made, which will be an Indian dinner and program for the entire church. Each circle is responsible for a portion of the program and also the dinner. The White Cross quota has arrived and all circles are busy filling their share. The next meeting of the Mary Butler Circle will be in the home of Mrs. Lydia Paulson, 719 W. Lane St. Lovely refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Crawford.

The Jane Osgood Circle of the First Baptist Church met in the home of Esther Gilliland in the Kohlhagen Apts. with Mrs. Francis Crawford, chairman, conducting the meeting. Mrs. Ideneal had charge of the Devotional. Mrs. Mabel Krohn presented the Missionary program. A large number of used Christmas cards were brought to be used on Mission Fields. At the close of the program lovely refreshments were served by Mrs. Gilliland and Mrs. Crawford, co-hostess. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Edith Roberts, 418 Commercial Ave.

The Mary Murray Circle met in the home of Mrs. Joyce Beckham, Thursday at 10 a. m. Mrs. Joyce Beckham had charge of the devotion. Mrs. Carol Schaefer was guest speaker giving a resume of Missionary Work. The meeting was closed with a sack lunch at noon. The next meeting will be in the form of a Christmas party for the missionary for whom the circle is named, Mary Murray is a home missionary in the state of Michigan.

The Loyalty Circle of the First Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. Mildred Ladd on Berdine Street in West Roseburg. Mrs. Ruth Haas, chairman, was in charge of the meeting. Mrs. Myrtle Jennings gave the devotion and she was accompanied by suitable musical selections with Mrs. Carol Schaefer at the piano. In the absence of Mrs. Ruth Smith, program chairman, Ruth Haas presented the missionary program. At the close of the meeting lovely refreshments were served by Mrs. Ladd. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Ann Byrd, 324 E. 1st Ave. N.

METHODIST SOCIETY SETS DESSERT-LUNCHEON
 Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet Thursday at 1 p. m. dessert - luncheon at the First Methodist Church with members of Elizabeth Circle as hostesses. Prayer time is 1:15 p. m.; program at 1:30 with Mrs. Arthur Ward in charge. Worship will be in charge of Mrs. H. A. Canaday on the topic, "Lasting Peace and Security for All."

WILBUR-WINCHESTER PTA TO MEET THURSDAY
 The first fall meeting of the Wilbur-Winchester PTA will be held Thursday at 7:30 p. m. in the Winchester School gym. Mrs. Barnes' first grade will be in charge of refreshments. A teacher reception and musical program is planned. Members are to bring white elephants for the November carnival.

MELROSE PTA TO MEET THURSDAY
 Melrose PTA will meet at the school Thursday. All members urged to attend promptly at 8 p. m. Program and refreshments planned.

MAUREEN NEUBERGER TO BE SPEAKER AT LUNCHEON SATURDAY
 "A Former Teacher Goes to the Legislature" has been selected by Maureen Neuberger as her subject when she speaks to members and guests of the local branch of the American Association of University Women Saturday. The meeting is a luncheon at 1 p. m. at the Umpqua Hotel.

Mrs. Neuberger is well qualified to speak on the topic since she is chairman of the education committee of the Oregon legislature. She is a member of the legislative committee of the Portland branch of AAUW and has taught in Portland schools. A graduate of Oregon College of Education and the University of Oregon, the guest speaker is a member of Theta Sigma Phi, women's journalism honorary, and claims free lance writing and photography as two of her hobbies. Mrs. Neuberger is a frequent speaker before such groups as PTA's, AAUW branches and League of Women voters and was the first woman speaker to appear before the Chamber of Commerce in Vancouver, B.C.

The October meeting is sponsored by the legislative committee of the local branch under the chairmanship of Mrs. William Green. Roseburg members of Delta Kappa Gamma, teacher's honorary, have been invited to attend the luncheon.

PRESBYTERIAN WOMAN'S SOCIETY TO HEAR BOOK REVIEW THURSDAY

An especially interesting program is in store for the Presbyterian Woman's Society Thursday afternoon because Mrs. Edwin G. Young will review the book, "The Church of Our Fathers," by Roland Bainton. Mr. Bainton is professor of Ecclesiastical History at Yale University. His book is "rich succession of stories out of the pages of history; a fascinating pageant unfolded from the earliest times to the times in which we live." Mr. Bainton also wrote the book "The I Stand," from which the motion picture, "Martin Luther" was made.

The excellence of Mrs. Young's reviewing is well-known to many who have heard former reviews elsewhere. Those who have not heard her before, will have a treat in store for them. She is of all people in these parts, especially qualified to give an account of the author of this book because she knew him when they both attended Whitman College at Walla Walla.

A dessert - luncheon will be served in the parlors of the Education building at 1:30 p. m. and Mrs. W. M. Campbell, president, will conduct a brief business session. All women of the church are most cordially invited to enjoy the pleasant afternoon.

NU GARDEN CLUB TO MEET THURSDAY
 North Umpqua Garden Club will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Ray Miller on Buckhorn Road. Mrs. W. H. Kenny will talk on daffodils; roll call will be on favorite ground cover for bulbs.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB TO MEET THURSDAY
 The Roseburg Junior Woman's Club will meet Thursday at 8 p. m. in the Woman's Clubhouse on Mosher Street. All members are urged to attend.

COUNTRY CLUB WOMEN TO MEET
 Women of the Country Club will meet Thursday at a 12:30 luncheon. Progressive or foursome bridge will be in play at 1 p. m.

SUNSHINE CLUB TO MEET THURSDAY
 Northside Sunshine Club will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Agnes Waer, 1829 Vine St. A plant exchange is planned.

Return From Trip — Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Dixon and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Banning have returned to their homes in Roseburg, following a trip to Montana and back through Idaho, where they visited a niece of Mrs. Dixon's.

Plant Sale Set — The Roseburg Town and Country Garden Club will hold a plant sale Friday and Saturday at Oak and Pine Streets in the Roseburg Transfer building.
