

CHICKYWEEMAY GIRLS HAVE NEW LEADER

The Chickyweemay Camp Fire Girls met at the home of their new leader, Mrs. R. A. Bartsch, Tuesday evening. During the business meeting plans were made to have a home made cake sale, Oct. 23. The group is building a travel expense fund as one of its winter projects and will use it next summer to take a trip to Santa Barbara to visit the group's former leader, Mrs. R. W. Cartwright. The girls plan to go by bus and have invited their leaders to accompany them.

Hot popcorn and punch were served by Karen Bartsch to: Martha Dement, Judy Hansen, Kay Holcomb, Connie Meyers, Sharon Pepple and Mrs. Bartsch. At a later meeting at the Bartsch home the girls signed up for treat and clean-up time and worked on their memory books. Refreshments were served by Connie Meyers.

MELROSE COUPLE ENJOYS GRAND VACATION TRIP

Mr and Mrs. Pete Veenstra recently returned to their home in Melrose from a two-month vacation trip. They were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. H. Ransom of Ephrata, Wash., formerly of Melrose. They then traveled north to Canada, visiting Lake Louise and Banff; entering the States through Glacier National Park, Mont.

From there they went through the Badlands of North and South Dakota and attended the Passion Play at Spearfish, S.D.

In Richland Center, Wis., they visited the Byron Clarson family and the Wesley Scouts, who are brother and sister of Mrs. L. L. Chitwood of Melrose. From there they journeyed to Niagara Falls and Owego, N. C., where Mr. Veenstra visited friends he had not seen for 20 years. They then went through the Adirondack Mountains to Lake Placid and North Pole, home of Santa's workshop. Santa receives visitors from June 1 to Nov. 1, and at the fairyland village, visitors young and old sit down and chat with Santa at his cheery fireside.

From North Pole, N.Y., they traveled on highway nine to Montreal and then to the quaint city of Quebec, entering the States again at Jackman, Me. Hurricane Carol stepped in their path the next day and travel west was postponed for a time.

Many interesting tours were enjoyed while in New York City. At Washington D.C. they went through the White House and Capitol building and at Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Md., they visited Pvt. Harold Chitwood, a former neighbor at Melrose. From there they drove down the coast to Florida and Key West, stopping at New Orleans, where they toured the French quarter and other points of interest.

In New Mexico the Veenstras went through Carlsbad Caverns. They came back by way of San Diego, stopping in Los Angeles, where they visited many friends and relatives.

SUTHERLIN DANCERS SET HALLOWEEN PARTY

The Folk Dance Club of Sutherland met at the grange hall Saturday night for an enjoyable evening of dancing.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Hellem, Mr. and Mrs. J. Kohl, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Biagle, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Icel Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Giegar of Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Lind, Fair Oaks; Mr. and Mrs. Fay Stearns, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Monett, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Crouch, Oakland; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Burdette, Umpqua, and two new members, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Blakeley, of Sutherland.

It was decided to have a Halloween party for the next dance, Saturday night, Oct. 23, with a hard time theme and will be an open house affair with other clubs and friends to be invited.

Dances will be held from 8 o'clock until midnight.

Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

EAST DOUGLAS HEN HAS FINE MEETING

East Douglas Extension Unit met at the home of Mrs. Wilbur Webb last Wednesday. Helen Chandler demonstrated easier ironing methods. Around 25 members and four guests were present. A potluck dinner was served at noon.

HERCHERS RETURN FROM INTERESTING TRIP TO MONTANA

A most interesting trip to Conrad, Mont., was completed Monday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hercher arrived at their home in Dillard. Mr. and Mrs. Hercher have been extensive truck gardeners for many years in the Dillard valley, consequently they planned their trip to visit various farming centers enroute to Montana to visit relatives. They followed the northern route by way of the McKenzie Pass into the Yakima Valley and did some sight-seeing around the Moses Lake country development, and drove through Spokane, Helena and Great Falls, Mont. into Conrad. They were guests of Mrs. Hercher's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Avery Roser, who own a dry goods store in Conrad. He was formerly associated with Penney's in Roseburg. After several days visit with relatives they traveled to Flat Head Lake, the summer home of the Rosers, then north around the Glacier National Park. Of great interest to the Herchers, who had never toured that country before, were the numerous large dams that have been developed in recent years. They visited Hungry Horse Dam and Cabinet George Dam in Idaho. They were fascinated by the scenic Priest River road leading into Spokane. Mr. Hercher is a well-known scenic photographer in the Dillard community and he took many colored slides and movies. They returned by way of Colfax, Wash., to view the farming section, and stopped at the McNary and Bonneville dams along the Columbia River.

In Arlington, Ore., they visited their nephews and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gardner, who formerly taught school in Sutherland, and are now teaching in Arlington. Mr. and Mrs. Hercher stopped overnight in Portland with Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Pickard, old friends. In Salem they visited the former's mother, Mrs. Jessie Hercher, her sister, Mrs. Myrtle Burr, a daughter, Carolyn, and while there made a tour of the Silver Lake Falls district.

SEWING CLUB IS ORGANIZED AT LOOKINGGLASS

A 4-H sewing club was organized in the Lookingglass School the past week. The girls chose for officers: Emily Ford, president; JoAnn Ford, vice president; Judy Raab, secretary; Ruby Ann Vance, song leader; Patsy Elliott, reporter; and Faye Oliviant, yell leader.

The girls have chosen Mrs. Homer Elliott and Mrs. J. C. Williams to be their leaders.

JUDY KETTEMAN IS HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

Miss Nancy Hibard entertained at a dessert-supper at her home recently to honor Judy Ketteman on her birthday anniversary.

Present for the evening were: Nancy Engle, Pat Greer, Dixie Bell, Pat Bell, the guest of honor, Miss Ketteman and the hostess. Games were the evening's diversion.

CLUB LEADER MAKES ANNUAL AWARDS

Frank von Borstel, County 4-H Club leader, was guest speaker Friday evening at the Lookingglass PTA meeting. Assisted by Miss Jane Gates, he made the annual awards and listed the merits of 4-H club members.

A short business meeting was held by the organization, at which time the resignation of Archie Huseby from the office of president was accepted and Mrs. Evelyn Mazon, vice president, was appointed to serve as president for the remainder of the year. Mrs. Thrasher was elected to the office of vice president. Mr. Huseby and family plan to leave the valley in the near future to make their home east of Roseburg in order to be nearer his work.

Mrs. Don Oliviant was chosen chairman of the committee to keep in contact with the school board and to arrange for cooperation with their plans for the district. Mrs. Carl Ellis and Mrs. George Marsh were appointed to attend the art exhibit being held in the near future at the Douglas High School.

A movie was provided to entertain the small children during the meeting. Mrs. Mary Morgan was reported to have resumed her teaching position in the first grade. Mrs. Laurence of Dillard had substituted for Mrs. Morgan since the first of the school year.

Refreshments were served by the first grade mothers.

WINSTON-DILLARD BLUE STAR CHAPTER OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED WEDNESDAY

The newly organized chapter of the Blue Star Mothers of America of Winston-Dillard met Wednesday in Roseburg as the guests of the Roseburg Chapter No. 4, at the Veterans Memorial building on Garden Valley road. The highlight of the meeting was the installation of the Winston-Dillard officers by the state president, Mrs. Edna M. Correy of Grants Pass; Mrs. Josephine Ferris of Grants Pass and Mrs. Elizabeth Hoff, state chaplain of Riddle.

Officers installed were: president, Mrs. Cecelia Carter; Mrs. Lulu Post, first vice president; Mrs. Tillie Goodwin, second vice president; Mrs. Zillah Wade, chaplain; Mrs. Rosa Heinbach, secretary; Mrs. Alice Hill, treasurer and Mrs. Selma Dozier, historian. The other officers were unable to attend. The state president presented the newly-organized group its charter. Instructions for working projects and various procedures were given the new chapter.

The next meeting will be Friday, Oct. 22, at 10 a.m. for a work day and potluck luncheon.

AZALEA GARDEN CLUB HAS MEETING

Azalea Garden Club held its October meeting in the grange hall with Esther Derrig, Opal Austin, Maxine Allen, and Loeta Rife as hostesses. Guests were Mrs. Anna Scott, a former member from St. Joseph, Mo., Mrs. Smith from St. Joseph; and Mrs. Arthur Long, California.

DILLARD CIRCLE GAINS NEW MEMBERS

Mary Circle of the Dillard Methodist WSCS met Tuesday evening at a potluck dinner in the church annex.

The business meeting followed, conducted by the president, Mrs. Doris Hutton. The following new members were introduced: Mrs. Esther Harrington, Kay McLennan, Mrs. Virginia Lengele, Mrs. Pearl Fanns and Miss Crede Mitchell. It was decided to set a seven-day limit on the friendship basket. The basket includes a donation gift and some refreshments to be a means of getting acquainted in the community.

Plans were made to have a family potluck dinner on the first Sunday of each month to be held at 5:30 p.m. in the church annex. A program is to include talent among the children and parents of the Mary Circle. Mrs. Vivian Burgess and Mrs. Doris Hutton were appointed to plan the details. Date books were distributed among the officers. The Rev. Feenstra read the devotions. Mrs. Feenstra read an article on famous women of modern times.

The next meeting will be held Nov. 2, at 8 o'clock at the Dillard Church.

OAKLAND PAST PRESIDENTS OF AUXILIARY MEET

A group of past presidents of the Oakland American Legion Auxiliary met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Barton Slane to organize a past presidents party.

Present for the affair were Mesdames Francis Crist, John Edwards, Dean Neas, Kenneth Lytle, Fay Stearns, Thelma Heaton and Mrs. Slane. The group will meet once a month and the November meeting will be with Mrs. Edwards.

A birthday cake was served in honor of Mrs. Slane's birthday anniversary.
