Green School Carnival Plans Now Complete

By MARY WEIKUM
The plans for the carnival to be held at the Green School Nov.
5, have been completed, and the work is well under way, reports Mrs. Joe Foote, chairman of the committee.

The carnival is an annual affair and is the main money making project of the local PTA. The money is used for the betterment of the school and community.

Work Together
Almost all organized groups in the community take part in making the affair a success. The Dad's Club builds and puts up the various booths and sells tickets. The Mother's Club has charge of the kitchen, serving from 8 until closing time. Boy Scouts will take charge of the parking lot, and Camp Fire Girls help serve and clear the tables. Parents and teachers work together in the various booths.

Many new games will be used this year for the first time, but many of the old favorites will be included in the evening's fun. Movies will be shown during the entire evening.

Tickets are still available on the drawing for the bicycle and the second and third prizes to be given. An electric corn popper is to be given as a door prize and one chance will be given for each dollar's worth of concession tickets purchased.

At Conference
Mrs. Viola Yates and children, Karen and Val, attended the fall conference of the re-organized Church of Latter Day Saints in Eugene on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs.
Herbert Hough accompanied the Yates family to the conference.
Mrs. Yates served on the lunchcon committee.

New neighbors on Castle street recently are Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roy Shuck and children, Ricky and Terry, who purchased their new home from Mrs. Viola Yates.

Among those from Green who attended the book review presented by Dr. James Millar at the First Presbyterian Church in Roseburg on Monday were Mrs.
Warren Engdahl, Mrs. Leroy Hester, Mrs. O'Neal, Mrs. Gordon Woods and Mrs. Carl Weikum.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Lindberg and children, Gary and Carlyn, spent the weekend at Triangle Lake where they visited the Russell Petersen family.

All Lies, Claims Averell Harriman

NEW YORK (AP) — Averell Harriman says the Republicans are trying to smear him with "big lie" tactics in the New York State gubernatorial campaign.

Harriman, the Democratic-Liberal Party candidate, replied Thursday night at a campaign rally with a point-by-point denial of a series of GOP attacks upon his personal and legal qualifications to become governor.

He denounced as lies 11 separate items in broadsides fired by Gov.
Thomas E. Dewey and U. S. Sen.
Irving M. Ives, Republican candidate for the post Dewey will leave Jan. 1.

Harriman, New Deal and "Fair Deal" diplomat and cabinet member, said Dewey was guilty of five lies in contending Harriman shared in million-dollar profits at the expense of investors in a Polish mining deal.

He accused Dewey of "a lie as well as a legal absurdity" in challenging Harriman's legal eligibility to become governor.
