WADIWICKA GIRLS HAVE HALLOWEEN PARTY

The Wadiwinka Camp Fire group of Green has been re-organized under the leadership of Mrs. John Newton of Castle Street. Miss Karen Amundson is the assistant leader. Officers elected for the present term are as follows: president, Marlene Lutterman; vice president, Sharon Terrell; secretary, Neala Cantelberry; treasurer, Judy Miner; scribe, Janet Weikum; and song leaders, Sandra Spancake and Joanne Thomas.

The first social event of the year was a Halloween party Monday evening held at the Amundson home. The rooms were colorfully decorated with corn stalks, pumpkins and streamers, and the girls all came in costume. The girls planned the entire party, including games, decorations, and refreshments. Some of the games were played on the patio around an open fire.

Refreshments were served to the following girls and leaders: Carol Lutterman, Janet Weikum, Sunny George, Patty Thompson, Janice Black, Judy Miner, Sharon Terrell, Susan Engdahl, Lorene McCright, Sandra Spancake, Mary Lee Elliott, Mary Lou Engdahl, Joanne Thomas, Neala Cantelberry, Marlene Lutterman, Mrs. Newton, Mrs. Amundson and Karen Amundson.
