

THE WEDDING of Darlene Diller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Diller of Roseburg, and Richard Lyle Shaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Shaw, Aurora, Ore., took place

Darlene Diller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Diller, Roseburg, became the bride of Richard Lyle Shaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Shaw, Aurora, Ore., at an impressive ceremony at eight o'clock the evening of Oct. 16 at the First Conservative Baptist Church in this city. The Rev. W. Henry Peck performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of 100 relatives and friends.

Large white chrysanthemums and tall white candles formed the church decorations. The aisles were marked by white satin ribbons with white satin bows and white wedding bells at each pew. Candelights were Sue Black and Beulah Sutton, who wore dresses in two shades of lavender with white carnation corsages and matching white carnation headbands.

Mrs. E. C. Diller played the wedding music and accompanied vocalist, Mrs. Howard Lowrie, who sang, "O, Promise Me" and "Because."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a gown of white slipper satin with an overdress of white lace. The gown was ballerina in length. Her veil was held in place by a lace cap trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink roses, blue carnations and stephanotis tied with a shower of white satin ribbons. For the something borrowed and something blue, she wore the blue silk garter worn by Mrs. Leland K. Wimberly at her wedding.

Donna Diller, sister of the bride was maid of honor and Sandra Van Horn was bridesmaid. They wore gowns fashioned identical to the bride's. Miss Diller wore blue satin with an overdress of blue nylon net and Miss Van Horn wore pink satin with an overdress of pink nylon net. They wore carnation headbands and carried carnations the same shade as their gowns. Their shoes also matched the color of their gowns.

Bryan Shaw, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and ushers were John Marvin Robertson and Gene Sinclair. The bride's mother wore a dusty rose lace dress with matching accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a blue suit with brown accessories. They both wore corsages of white roses.

For the reception, which followed the wedding, pink chrysanthemums, colorful autumn leaves and large baskets of dahlias from the garden of Mr. and Mrs. John William Robertson, were used for decorations. The lace-covered table was centered by the beautifully decorated wedding cake circled by pink carnations and fern.

Mrs. George Weseman presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. O. W. Severson served the punch. Miss Winnie Nivens, aunt of the bridegroom, served the cake. Mrs. John William Robertson assisted about the rooms and Miss Beulah Sutton had charge of the guest book.

Following a honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Shaw are now making their home in Portland. For traveling the bride wore a pink poodlecloth suit with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Out-of-town guests coming for the wedding were: Mrs. Ben Blake, aunt of the bridegroom, Harford, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Robertson, Cottage Grove; Mrs. E. C. Diller, aunt of the bride, Aurora; Mrs. Howard Lowrie, cousin of the bride, Woodburn; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robbins, Gold Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Heater and three sons, Silverton; Mrs. Herman Staehly, aunt of the bride, Oregon City; Miss Beverly Johnson, Sandy; Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Shaw, parents of the bridegroom, Aurora and Bryan Shaw, brother of the bridegroom, Klamath Falls.

California Visitor Complimented At Enjoyable Party

To compliment Mrs. W. E. Martig of Roseburg, Calif., a charming seven-thirty o'clock dessert supper was given by Mrs. Earl Ullrich at her home on Commercial Avenue Wednesday evening. Chrysanthemums and roses formed a pretty decorative motif for the occasion.

BRIDE—Toni Kern, above, of Katzenfurt, Germany, became the bride of Wayne Carpenter, son of Mrs. Arte E. Stephens, 235 W. First Avenue N., Roseburg, in Oakland, Calif., Oct. 28. The couple will reside in Oakland, Calif., where the bridegroom is employed as a TV salesman.

Mr. and Mrs. Arte E. Stephens have returned to their home in Roseburg from Oakland, Calif., where they attended the wedding of Mrs. Stephens' son, Wayne Carpenter, to Miss Toni Kern of Katzenfurt, Germany.

The marriage was performed by the Rev. Dr. Cooper of the First Presbyterian Church of Oakland Thursday, Oct. 28. Mr. Stephens acting as father of the bride, gave her in marriage to his step-son. They were attended by Colleen Carpenter, sister of the bridegroom, and Colonel Del Von Ehrhart, friend of the family.

The wedding has created much interest in the Roseburg area, since all arrangements for Miss Kern's entree to the U. S. have been made through local offices and efforts. All arrangements for her transportation were handled by Mr. Jelski of the Lewis Travel Agency here. Miss Kern came all the way by plane, leaving Frankfurt, Oct. 25, and arriving in Oakland via New York the evening of Oct. 26. The help extended by Senator Guy Cordon expedited her case with a minimum amount of worry and red tape usually attached to such cases.

The couple will make their home in Oakland, where he is employed as a TV salesman.
