

Glendale High School To Hold Carnival November 13 At 7:30

By MRS. G. B. FOX
The Glendale High School Carnival will be held at the high school Nov. 13, at 7:30 p.m. Each class has chosen a queen candidate, and the Lettermen's Club, Pep Club and GAA are also sponsoring candidates.
Princesses Chosen
The following princesses have been selected by their respective groups: seniors, Nancy Hodge; juniors, Juanita Stovall; sophomores, Shirley Johnson; freshmen, Anna Jo Sparks; Lettermen's Club, Joan Taylor; and GAA and

Edwards, a member of the high school teaching staff, is to be carnival advisor. Chairmen for the oration and supplies, Nancy Hodge; construction and clean-up, Don Close and the shop class; noise, Jack Kilmer; publicity and advertisement, Mrs. Delight Buckland and Miss Doris Holmes; Judges, Mike Bird.

Meetings Slated
Evangelist J. H. Apigian of Constantinople, Turkey is holding special meetings at the Glendale Seventh Day Adventist Church. He is being assisted by the pastor, Elder D. M. MacIvor. Meetings and Tuesday nights of this week at 7:30 p.m. Subjects for this week's meetings are: Monday, 31-000 Years on Devil's Island; How Far Is Hell From Glendale?; Tue-eday, "The Man God Forgot." Apigian will also tell of the story of his escape to America when he and his family were exiled from Armenia. He will tell part of the story on each night.

Awards Assembly Held For Rose 4-H Clubs
A 4H awards assembly was held at Rose School Thursday afternoon according to Club Reporter Jane Phillips.
Frank Von Borstel, Douglas County 4H leader, was present and discussed the advantages of 4H club work and presented first-year pins and certificates which were earned by Rose School students last year. Several interested parents and local club leaders attended the assembly.
