Local Community News Briefs

Will Visit In California — Marie Bolduc, chief dietitian at the VA Hospital here, plans to spend the holiday weekend at her home in San Francisco.

Attend Meeting — Ted H. Wirak, personnel officer; Clifford Fields, contact representative; and Celia Day, registrar, all of the VA Hospital, were in Portland recently to attend an annual meeting of service officers.

Return From Hunt — A group of successful elk hunters returned to their homes Sunday following a 10-day trip to Deer Lodge, Mont. Among the group were: Harold Woolley, Cub Lupton and Glen Woolley of Drain; David Fredrickson of Gilchrist; Wesley Toppings of Melrose and Forrest Solomon of Winchester.

Visit Here — Mr. and Mrs. Harold Selk of Portland and the latter's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bower, of Corvallis, were weekend visitors in Roseburg at the home of Mrs. Selk's niece, Mrs. Alice Wing. They also visited Mrs. Selk's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Laurie Adamski. The group visited Sunday at the home of Mrs. Wing's daughter, Mrs. Elton Zuercher, and family at Garden Valley.

Arrive For Celebration — Arriving in Roseburg last weekend to attend the golden wedding open house Wednesday night for Mr. and Mrs. James McAllister at the Woman's Club were their sons and daughters: Mrs. James Walter, Larami, Wyo.; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McAllister and Sharon, Lyons, Colo.; Mrs. Leo Wickham and Judy of Evanston, Wyo.; and Mrs. Wesley Hygen and Carolyn and Cynthia of Leadville, Colo. Arriving Tuesday were the Rev. and Mrs. R. G. McAllister and Carol and Mariene of Casper, Wyo.

Goos To Lakeview — Mrs. William Arnold left Sunday by bus for Lakeview, where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. Eva Houston, for several days.

Is Guest Speaker — The Rev. and Mrs. Vernon Klein and family drove to Springfield Sunday, where the former was a guest speaker at the homecoming services held at the Assembly of God Church.

Bring Back Elk — Four elk were bagged last weekend in the coast range area by Cletus and Don Krogal, Bob Harrison, Bill Jones and David Gillingman. The group got one elk the week before, making a total of five for the group.

Arriving Friday — Dr. and Mrs. John L. Haskins of Los Angeles are arriving in Roseburg Friday for a short visit with old friends before returning to Southern California. They have been in Portland visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Merrifield, and family. Dr. Haskins was formerly manager of the VA Hospital here, before being transferred to Los Angeles.

Visits In New England — Miss Jane Gates has returned from a two-week vacation spent in the East. She spent some time with her parents and relatives in Cambridge, Vt., and visited elsewhere in the state. Damage done by Hurricane Hazel was still evident here. The hurricane had stripped the leaves from all the trees in northern Vermont, ruining the usual, colorful autumn scenery. Before returning to Roseburg, Miss Gates spent a few days in New York City.

Spends Day Here — Mrs. H. C. Stearns of Oakland spent Tuesday in Roseburg. She will leave Saturday for Cottage Grove to visit overnight with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Webb, who will take her to Eugene Sunday. She will be joined in Eugene by Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Metzger and Mrs. E. B. Row of this city, and the four will board the Shasta Daylight for San Francisco and will sail on Matson's Luxury liner, Lurline, next Tuesday for a month's vacation in Honolulu. Mr. Metzger has a cousin, who is a retired judge, who resides in Honolulu. The four plan to stay at the Moana Hotel.

Arrives From East — Mrs. Gordon Applewhite, the former Frances Jordan, has arrived in Roseburg from Washington D.C. She was called here by the death of her father, Mark Jordan. She made the trip to Portland by plane, where she was met Tuesday by her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Vierra, who brought her to Roseburg by automobile. Mr. and Mrs. Applewhite and daughter, Mary Frances and son, Grant Dee, visited in Roseburg during their vacation last summer. Applewhite is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Applewhite of this city. He is employed by the U. S. Weather Bureau in Washington D.C. The family resides in Falls Church, Va.

See Grandparents — Miss Pat Roark visited her grandparents in Eugene over the weekend.

Here From Reedsport — Richard Miles of Reedsport was in Roseburg Saturday for a visit and business.

Spend Day In Eugene — Charles V. Stanton, editor of the News-Review, and Mrs. Stanton spent Tuesday in Eugene on business. They were accompanied by Mrs. Stanton's sister, Mrs. Fred L. Perry.

Leaving For Honolulu — Leslie G. Shuk of Roseburg is leaving this weekend for San Francisco to board the Lurline for the Thanksgiving cruise to Honolulu and Hilo. He will make the return trip on the Lurline in two weeks.

Moving To California — Mr. and Mrs. E. Rolland Worth and family, former county residents, are moving from Amite, La., to San Diego, Calif., to make their home. Worth will go into business with his brother-in-law, Ed Crammer. Worth has been with Martin Box Co. in Oakland and at Amite. While residents of Douglas County, Mr. and Mrs. Worth resided in Wilbur.

Return From Salem — Sen. and Mrs. E. L. Mead have returned to their home on East Lane Street in Roseburg, following a trip to Salem, where the former attended a meeting of the Interim Committee on revenue, of which he is chairman. Mrs. Mead visited her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Carl Miller, and with Mrs. Elmer Worth, Sen. and Mrs. Geddes enjoyed the Mardi Gras and the football game Saturday night.

Will Visit Grandparents — Dickie McKee, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul McKee of Roseburg, is leaving Friday for Yachats to spend a month visiting his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Koepf, while his parents make a trip on Matson's luxury liner, Lurline, to Honolulu. The McKees' daughter, Carol, will remain in Roseburg at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hammond. Mrs. McKee's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Koepf, operate Sherwood Logettes at Yachats. The McKees will leave Roseburg Sunday for San Francisco and will sail Nov. 16.

Returns To Base — Cpl. Bill Drake, USMC, returned to his base near Seattle Sunday following the weekend in Roseburg visiting his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Don Bell, and other relatives.

Back From Hunting Trip — Sid Moon and Wayne Crooch and son, Dee, have returned to their homes in Roseburg, following a trip to Klamath Falls to spend a few days hunting ducks. They brought back 40 ducks.

Visit Relatives — Mr. and Mrs. Emil Dietrich are back at their home at Glendale following a two-week visit with their children and families at Grandview, and Battle Ground, Wash. They also visited friends at Newberg.

Back From Palo Alto — Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Beanstock; Walter Barker, chief of social services; Dr. Glenn Wright, chief psychologist; and Georgia Moss, chief nurse, all of the VA Hospital in Roseburg, have returned here following a week in Palo Alto, Calif., attending meetings with other heads of departments for western hospitals.

Attend Celebration — Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Mead, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mead and daughter and Miss Aletha Mead, all of Roseburg, drove to Central Point Sunday to attend the 60th wedding anniversary of R. L. Mead's mother and father. The anniversary included an open house at the Central Point Community Church. Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Mead of Medford, son and daughter-in-law of the celebrants, served refreshments to the 70 attending guests.

In Hospital — Steven Coyne, 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Ashman, entered Sacred Heart Hospital last Wednesday for treatment and diagnosis. He will be there several days.

Visitor Leaves — Mrs. Genevieve Moon left Tuesday for her home in Hemet, Calif., following several weeks in Roseburg visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Moon Jr. in Huerfano.

Mrs. McClintock Home — Mrs. L. E. McClintock has returned to her home in Roseburg, following a stay in Portland visiting her son, Richard, who is a patient at St. Vincent's Hospital, where he will undergo surgery on his leg Nov. 15.

Will Undergo Surgery — Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Mead will leave Thursday morning for Salem where Mr. Mead will be confined at the Salem General Hospital for eye surgery. He will return in about 10 days to his home at 912 Mill St. Mrs. Mead will return Sunday by bus.

DO YOU KNOW—that about 75% of accidents are caused by defective automobiles?

With the average age of cars on the road now 9 years, this high rate can't be reduced unless owners keep their old cars in good condition. If your brakes grip unevenly, have them adjusted; if your lights are inadequate, have them fixed.

Investing in car repairs is an investment in your own life.

Simply Amazing...
CHOCOLATE-MOCHA CREAM
in 30 seconds!

There's no end to the exciting desserts you can make with Amazo—the only basic instant dessert. Others will "set" only when mixed with milk. But magic Amazo sets instantly with any liquid—fruit juice or coffee, for instance. Try...

AMAZO CHOCOLATE-MOCHA CREAM: Combine in deep bowl 1 cup cold milk and 1 cup cold strong coffee. Add 1 pkg. Chocolate Amazo. Whip 30 seconds with rotary beater and it's ready to serve!

*Be sure to use Amazo. So-called instant puddings will not work in this recipe.
