

LT. AND MRS. LARRY HENNINGER, above, are photographed following their marriage, Oct. 29, in Holy Trinity Episcopal Church in Menlo Park, Calif. The bride, Amber Spinning, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Spinning of Dufur, Ore., and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Henninger of Roseburg (Picture by Ingersoll Studio, Menlo Park).

A wedding of much interest in Roseburg took place at four o'clock Oct. 29 at Holy Trinity Episcopal Church in Menlo Park, Calif., when Lt. Larry Eugene Henninger, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Henninger of Roseburg, took as his bride, Miss Amber Spinning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Spinning of Dufur, Ore. White flowers and white candles decorated the altar. Father Gardner Smith officiated. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of white nylon tulle and Chantilly lace with a fingertip veil falling from a cap trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book with a bouquet of bouvardia and stephanotis. The maid of honor was Miss Ann Fitch of Portland and bridesmaids were Miss Carol Gevurtz and Miss Nancy Sterrett of Portland; Miss Marcia Newland of Roseburg, and Miss Clare Sciele of Santa Barbara, Calif. The attendants wore identical crystal-lette ballerina gowns of royal blue with panels of ice blue in the skirt and bodice. They carried cascade bouquets of pale blue spider chrysanthemums and bouvardia with white predominating in the maid of honor's and blue predominating in the bridesmaids'. John Schaefer of Los Angeles was best man and ushers were Wayne Henninger, brother of the bridegroom, Roseburg; Barksdale Fortson, Los Gatos; Randall Wilde, Berkeley, and Jack Young, Portland, all Theta Xi fraternity brothers of the bridegroom. Both Mrs. Spinning and Mrs. Henninger wore gowns of similar shades of light blue with matching hats and corsages of amber orchids with rose throats. A reception followed in the parish hall, after which the new Mr. and Mrs. Henninger left for Monterey on their honeymoon. They are now at home in Mt. View while the bride completes her senior year at Stanford. Lt. Henninger will soon be sent to England with the Air Force and will be joined there in June by his bride. For traveling the bride chose a charcoal grey dress with matching accessories. The bride is president of Associated Women Students at Stanford and is a sponsor at Roble Hall. Lt. Henninger, who was graduated from Roseburg High School and was vice president of the honor society, was graduated from Stanford in Business Administration last March. He has been stationed at Parks Air Force Base at Pleasanton, Calif., and will leave next week for Fort Killemer, N.J., to be sent to England. His junior year, he was president of his fraternity, Theta Xi, and was a sponsor at Encina Hall. Out-of-town guests going to the wedding besides the bride's parents were the bridegroom's parents and brother, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Henninger and Wayne; his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Harvey; his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Henninger; Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Amiot; Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Chapman Jr. and daughter, Miss Evangeline; Mrs. Maurice J. Newland, all of Roseburg; her daughter, Miss Marcia Newland, a student at Stanford; her son, Lt. Rod Newland, who is stationed at Parks Air Force Base; Loren Loveland, student at Stanford, and Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Williams, San Francisco, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom.

ENGAGEMENT REVEALED—Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Wingfield of Roseburg announce the engagement of their daughter, Carolyn Jane, to Roland O. Cheek, son of Hill S. Cheek, of this city. Miss Wingfield is a senior at Roseburg Senior High School. Mr. Cheek is presently employed at Sanders' sawmill. No date has been set for the wedding. (Picture by Clark's Studio).

Mr. and Mrs. Henninger Entertain At Dinners

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Henninger entertained at a dinner party in the private dining room at Sandy MacDonald's in Redwood City Oct. 28 following the rehearsal for the wedding of their son, Lt. Larry Henninger, and Amber Spinning, which took place the following evening at Holy Trinity Episcopal Church in Menlo Park, Calif. Covers were placed for Amber and Larry and Miss Carol Gevurtz, Miss Ann Fitch, Jack Young, Miss Nancy Sterrett, Portland; Miss Marcia Newland, Roseburg; Miss Clare Van Sciele, Santa Barbara; John Schaefer, Los Angeles; Wayne Henninger, Roseburg; Barksdale Fortson Los Gatos; Randall Wilde, Berkeley; Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Spinning, Dufur, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Harvey and the host and hostess. Following the wedding Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Henninger and son, Wayne, entertained the following at a dinner at Rickey's in Palo Alto: Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Henninger, Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Amiot, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Chapman Jr. and daughter, Miss Evangeline; Mrs. Maurice J. Newland and daughter, Marcia, and son, Lt. Rod Newland; Loren Loveland, all of Roseburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Williams of San Francisco.

ROSEBURG OES INITIATES MEMBERS AT THURSDAY MEETING

At the regular meeting of Roseburg Chapter No. 8, Order of the Eastern Star Thursday Dr. and Mrs. George E. Houck were among those present to witness the initiation of three new members, Mabel and Joe Johnson and Adrid Van Horn. Mrs. Johnson, former office nurse for Dr. Houck, was presented an Eastern Star pin from the Houcks by Mrs. Earl Wiley, who acted in their behalf.

ETA BETA CHAPTER ENJOYS PARTY AT PENDERGRASS HOME

The Eta Beta Chapter of the Tau Phi Lambda held an interesting masquerade Halloween party Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Bonnie Pendergrass in Roseburg. Appropriate games were played. Very clever Halloween decorations were carried out by the hostess in the rooms and the refreshments. Those enjoying the affair were Mrs. Betty Jo Brown, Mrs. Beulah Gibson, Mrs. Maxine Cantwell, Mrs. Ruby Hartsorn, Mrs. Thelma Hatcher and the hostess, Mrs. Pendergrass.

MRS. DONALD MILTON OLLIVANT, above, poses for her wedding portrait at the Evangelical United Brethren Church in Eugene. Before her marriage, she was LaDonna Mae McSorley and is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McSorley of Reedsport. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Ollivant of Lookingglass. (Picture by Betts Studio).

Miss LaDonna McSorley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McSorley of Reedsport, became the bride of Donald Milton Ollivant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Ollivant of Roseburg, at a pretty wedding held at the Evangelical United Brethren Church in Eugene Sunday, Oct. 31. The Rev. Cleo Thompson performed the single ring ceremony at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Baskets of bronze and cream mums, autumn leaves and white candelabra formed the church decorations. White streamers with autumn leaves marked the bridal aisle. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a gown of white nylon, lace and tulle over satin, fashioned in Elizabethan style. She wore a fingertip veil held in place by a tiara of seed pearls and iridescents. She carried a cascade bouquet of bronze and white mums, centered by an orchid. Mrs. Archie Myers was matron of honor, wearing a waltz length gown of soft green taffeta with a jacket of lace in a harmonizing tone of green. She carried a cascade bouquet of bronze and white mums and wore a headress of white mums and green lace. Mrs. Ray Lee and Miss Adrienne Snow were bridesmaids, wearing gowns made similar to the matron of honor in apricot and rust taffeta. They carried bouquets similar to the bride's. Miss Toni Ollivant, sister of the bridegroom, was junior bridesmaid, and Robin Muncie was flower girl. They both wore gowns of yellow taffeta. Allen Stephens of Oakland was best man and ushers were William Rice and Thomas Vance, both of Roseburg. Betty Allen, organist, accompanied Doris Wilson who sang "Because," "Wedding Prayer," and "Through the Years." Candle lighters were Carolyn Knutson and Faye Rice, both wearing white choir robes as did the organist and vocalist. Mother of the bride wore a suit dress of mauve with pink accessories and pink rosebud corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a suit dress of spice brown with turquoise accessories and a yellow rosebud corsage. A reception was held following the ceremony at the church parlors. Mrs. A. M. Finnell cut the cake; Joan Stephens, sister of the bridegroom, presided at the punch bowl; Barbara Munci, sister of the bride, poured coffee and Ester Elston and Ruby Sheldon served. The serving table was covered with a white damask cloth and "aced with colored chrysanthemum bouquets and the four-tiered wedding cake. Betty Tsui was in charge of the gifts and Grace Mills arranged the gifts. For a wedding trip to eastern Oregon and coastal points the bride chose a white suit with brown accessories. The couple will reside at Roseburg.

Visitors Complimented During Visit In Roseburg

Miss Helen Casey and Miss Naomi Scott entertained at a delightful one o'clock luncheon Saturday at the Elks in compliment to the latter's two sisters, Mrs. Herbert B. Towner of Chicago and Iola Scott Wiles of Portland. Mrs. Chester Morgan and Mrs. Paul Jenkins were additional guests. Sunday, Miss Casey and Miss Scott had Miss Rosa B. Parrott and Mrs. John Young to dinner at their home on Blakeley Street in honor of Mrs. Towner and Mrs. Wiles. Miss Scott accompanied Mrs. Towner and Mrs. Wiles to Eugene Tuesday to visit at the home of another sister, Mrs. A. L. Martin, until Thursday, when Miss Scott returned to Roseburg and Mrs. Wiles and Mrs. Towner went on to Portland, where the latter left for her home in Chicago.

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD FEIGUM were married at 10 a.m. Nov. 8 at the First Christian Church in Roseburg. The bride, Barbara Jeanne Force, is the daughter of Mrs. Erma Force, 320 W. First Avenue N., Roseburg, and L. B. Force, of Port Angeles, Wn. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert N. Feigum of Roseburg, formerly of Sweet Home. Gayle Sanders and Gary McKinney were attendants. The bride wore a navy blue suit with pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Her attendant wore a grey suit with a corsage of red roses. Bronze chrysanthemums decorated the church. Following a honeymoon to California, Mr. and Mrs. Feigum will reside in Roseburg. (Picture by Chris of Fredrickson's Photo Lab).

ATTORNEY AND MRS. THOMAS MCKENNA and daughter, Kathy, 3½ (center), and twins, Mary Rita (held by her father), and Tommy Jr., 16-months, are spending their two weeks vacation in Roseburg visiting Mrs. McKenna's parents, Congressman and Mrs. Harris Ellsworth, in Laurelwood. Mrs. McKenna is the former Jane Ellsworth. They made the trip here from their home in Santa Fe, N.M. by plane. (Picture by Chris of Fredrickson's Photo Lab).

Farewell Party Honors Miss Jean Ogle Monday

A very charming party of the week was the farewell affair honoring Miss Jean Ogle, registered nurse transferred from the Roseburg VA Hospital to San Francisco, given Monday evening by Miss Jane Luther and Mrs. James E. Seitz at the latter's attractive home at 3016 Porter Street. Gifts were presented to Miss Ogle from the two hostesses and Mrs. Velma Bass, Mrs. Clifford Cook, Mrs. Celia Day, Mrs. Warren Demyt, Miss Arlene Fischer, Mrs. Bryce Gorman, Miss Janet Keller, Mrs. William Lamm, Mrs. Dan Mindlovich, Mrs. J. L. Neal Mrs. Dwight Pair, Mrs. Harold Speidel, Mrs. Ray Stein, Miss Velma Werth, Miss Esie White and Mrs. Charles Whitaker. Lovely refreshments were served by Mrs. Seitz and Miss Luther.

Mrs. J. A. Harding Is Honored On Birthday

To surprise and honor Mrs. J. A. Harding on her birthday anniversary, a group of friends arranged a no-hostess dinner party Monday evening, when they called at the attractive home of the Hardings on East Lane Street.

Joining the party from Eugene were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Van Duyn. Lovely gifts were presented to Mrs. Harding. A pleasant social evening followed the dinner hour. Mrs. Harding, who is convalescing from a fractured left hip, is getting along nicely.

REGULAR SHOP
PERMANENT
$5.00
and up
Shampoos and Waves
1.75 and up

Z'S BEAUTY PARLOR
Emma Glines — Zelma Davis
Call 3-6300 — 99 Parrott

CLOSED MONDAYS