CONVOCATION MEETING HELD AT PORTLAND BY WOMEN OF MOOSE

The Convocation, which was held in Portland, Oct. 30, was honored by the presence of the grand council member, Tivy Nachtergale, and deputy grand regent, Rose Van Meter.

The Portland Chapter Women of the Moose were hostesses to some 236 women at the Oregon State Convocation held last Sunday. Deputy grand, Mrs. Waldon Routledge of Roseburg, presided at the ceremony. The session opened at 10:00 a.m. Sunday morning.

The meeting was divided into 11 groups presided over by a discussion leader, each pertaining to one of the 11 chapter development committees. After the meeting reconvened each discussion leader gave a two minute report of her group meeting. At 11:30 all members were dismissed except members of the Academy of Friendship and members of the College of Regents. A 15 minute discussion period was held for these two groups. At 11:45 friendship members were dismissed and a college of regents discussion was held.

Luncheon was served at 12 o'clock by the hostess chapter.

The afternoon session, beginning at 1:15, featured the ritual ceremonies by the five top honor chapters in the State of Oregon: Albany, St. Helens, Medford, Eugene and Klamath Falls. Fourteen candidates were initiated into the order in honor of the deputy grand regent. The highlight of the afternoon was the capping ceremony for all junior graduate regents. There were 12 girls capped: 11 from Oregon, and one from Washington. A talk was given by Fern Burke, Seaside Chapter; followed by the scholarship fund march of donations by all the chapters. The contributions to the college of regents scholarship fund is used to further the education of a girl from Mooseheart, the organization's child city.

Mrs. Waldon Routledge then discussed the theme of the convocation, which was "Miss Katherine's Wish."

Many gifts were presented to the visiting dignitaries. The meeting adjourned at 4:30 followed by a buffet supper.
