MRS. LIESINGER HOSTS FRIENDS AT PARTY

A Halloween demonstration party was held at the home of Mrs. Pat Liesinger Thursday; each guest arrived wearing a costume. Prizes were awarded for the best costume; first, Mrs. Haslam; second, Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Gleason, dressed as bride and groom. Mrs. Liesinger received a hostess gift from Francis Smith and a secret pal gift was sent to Mrs. Smith as she was unable to be present.

The hostess served refreshments to the following guests: Mrs. Marvin Luxier, Mrs. Alice Montgomery, Mrs. Vern Liesinger and son, Allan; Mrs. Joyce Liesinger and daughter, Willa Jean; Mrs. Mae Montgomery and daughter, Penny Ann; and the demonstrator, Mrs. Vivian Travis. Members were Mrs. Leona Elliott and daughter Teresa; Mrs. Elizabeth Gleason, Mrs. Hallie Martin, Mrs. Eunice Haslam, Linda and Shariene Liesinger.

Games were played and prizes awarded. The next meeting of the Do-A-Deed Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Leona Elliott Thursday, Nov. 18.

FULLERTON PTA TO SPONSOR CARNIVAL FRIDAY EVENING

Fullerton PTA will sponsor a carnival and bazaar Friday at the school from 6:30 to 9 p.m. Many booths and concessions will be featured in an attempt to provide entertainment for the entire family. The carnival is to be the "one for fun" project that will be used to raise funds to further PTA work in the school for the children.

Refreshments to be served will include hot dogs, coffee, chili, milk, pop, homemade pie, cake, cupcakes and candy. Families are invited to attend early and eat at the school instead of home. Booths will be gaily decorated and will include three fishponds, fortune telling booths, baseball throw, ring toss, dart games, movies, cake walk, squirt the candle and others. There will be fancy work for sale as well as planters and bulbs; also articles of interest at a white elephant table. Homemade cakes, candy and baked goods will be sold at the food booth.

According to Lyle Eddy, general chairman of the carnival, preparations are being made for a large attendance. Fullerton School is located on Harvard Avenue on the west side of Roseburg. The public is invited to attend.
