

THE GOLDEN WEDDING of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. McAllister, who came to Roseburg in 1951 from Colorado, was celebrated at an open house from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. at the Roseburg Woman's Clubhouse, Nov. 10. A theme of bells in gold with gold-colored chrysanthemums and gold-colored candles formed the decorations arranged by Mrs. Vernon Klemm. The guest book was in charge of Mrs. L. V. Miller. A beautifully decorated wedding cake was cut and served and many lovely gifts were presented to the couple. Mr. and Mrs. McAllister are shown seated in the above picture with Mrs. James Walter of Laramie, Wyo.,

MRS. MARR HOSTS WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP THURSDAY EVENING

The All Women's Fellowship of the First Christian Church of Roseburg met at the home of Mrs. Blanche Marr Thursday evening.

Following the short business meeting, Mrs. Newell Morgan, speaker of the evening, presented an inspirational talk entitled, "Women Have A Way With Them," in which she outlined the various means of raising funds used in church programs in the past, and the importance of good stewardship. Miss Mary Sala, devotional chairman, presented several interesting and spiritual thoughts about Thanksgiving. Mrs. Peggy Nott sang two solos. The evening's program was concluded with a mystery game with prizes being awarded to the winners.

Mrs. Neva Plank and Mrs. Anna Rose Morgan arranged the decorations, which carried out the Thanksgiving motif and included a cornucopia full of vegetables, fruits and autumn leaves, flanked by candelabra. Circle Helen Doyle served delicious refreshments. Next meeting will be at the church at 11 a.m., Dec. 9, with a sack luncheon planned.

MR. AND MRS. J. G. McALLISTER, above, cut the first piece of their golden wedding anniversary cake at the reception held in their honor at the Woman's Club. A dinner preceded the affair at the clubhouse for the family with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Blake serving the dinner. Mr. McAllister, who is retired, was engaged in the trucking industry in Colorado before coming here. Mr. and Mrs. McAllister are parents of 10 children, 30 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. FINE PROGRAM HEARD BY WOMAN'S CLUB MEMBERS ON TUESDAY

An interesting meeting was presented by E. S. Hall, Mrs. Lee Marsh, Mrs. R. E. Spackman and Dr. R. D. Sinclair on the topic "Opportunities Unlimited for the Handicapped," at the 1:30 o'clock session of the Roseburg Woman's Club Tuesday. An audience of 74 greeted their remarks with interest.

Music was pleasingly presented by Harold Baxter, pianist. It was determined at the meeting to give gifts to the state mental hospital at Salem and members are asked to bring the gifts to the club.

The members were reminded that one of the goals of the Federated clubs was an active opposition to the undesirable comic books flooding the market, and their attention was called to the fact that this week is Children's Book Week and that promotion of interest in good books was one element in the fight against poor books.

Friday, Dec. 17 was set as the date for a cookie and candy sale with Mrs. Earl Plummer as chairman of the project.

MELROSE HE CLUB HAS DESSERT-SUPPER

Mrs. Walter Kruse and Mrs. Ralph Turner were gracious hostesses to members of the Melrose Home Economics Club at the home of the former at Melrose at a dessert-supper.

Plans were made for the tamale supper to be served Sunday. New officers were elected as follows: chairman, Oll Kreuger; co-chairman, Kay Simmons; secretary, treasurer, Emma Abeel. The Christmas party was set for Dec. 16, at the home of Mrs. Pete Veestra.

The next grange meeting will be a 7 p.m. polluck affair and installation of new officers by Alice Goff, Dec. 7.

The Thanksgiving motif was carried out in the refreshments and decorations.

DRAMA GROUP OF AAUW MEETS ON THURSDAY NIGHT

The drama group of the AAUW met Thursday evening at the home of Rae Bellach with Erna Anderson, leader, in charge. Readings of a play by Pehekov and a modern one-act play were enjoyed with members participating in presenting the readings. Fourteen were present.

SHOWER PARTY HONORS MRS. RONALD FINK AT FINN HOME THURSDAY

Mrs. Lloyd Johnson and Mrs. Clyde Cooper were gracious hostesses at a pink and blue shower party at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Finn in Roseburg honoring Mrs. Ronald Fink, the former Dorothy Finn, last Thursday evening.

Following the opening of the many lovely gifts and the playing of appropriate games, the hostesses served dainty refreshments to: Mrs. Fink; Phyllis Williams, Bonnie Jean Krohn, Emma Leah Handy, Ruth Thomland, Crystal Conn, Vera Conn, Helen Lee and Grandma Lee of Myrtle Creek; Lillian Kenworthy and Sandra and Kay; Virginia Matthews, Althea Meade, Margaret Finn, Amy Kruse, LaVerne and Marilyn Nickens. MRS. BROOKS HOSTS NU GARDEN CLUB

The North Umpqua Garden Club met recently at the home of Mrs. Lonnie Brooks. Three teams, consisting of three ladies each, made different table centerpieces from items brought by each member for the Thanksgiving table arrangement.

Mrs. Adrian Stanley gave a report on azaleas and rhododendrons. Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. R. H. Franks. Each member is to bring an evergreen with its botanical name. Christmas wreaths will be made with each member furnishing her own material.

MID-WEEK BIBLE CLASS MEETING IS INTERESTING EVENT OF THURSDAY

The Mid-Week Bible Class of St. Paul's Lutheran Church enjoyed a very interesting meeting and pleasant social hour Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Vogt, 1108 Wharton Ave., with Mrs. Louise Vogt, mother of Mrs. Vogt, as a most gracious hostess.

Mrs. Lucinda Vandecar of Lewiston, Idaho, was welcomed as a guest. Mrs. Vandecar came to Roseburg to visit her daughters, Mrs. Donald Stapleton and Mrs. Joe Forrest and to care for her new grandson, Bradley Kent Forrest.

During the interesting Bible discussion, high tribute was paid to the work of the woman in the home.

In the brief business meeting it was decided to have a Christmas party at the next meeting. Instead of bringing gifts for one another, everyone decided to share the Christmas joy with the less fortunate people in the state institutions by bringing gifts for them. The gifts are to be wrapped at the meeting and sent to Pastor Becker, the Lutheran Chaplain, for distribution. The ladies also decided the free-will offering received at the next meeting will be sent to Concordia College in Portland.

During the social hour lovely refreshments were served buffet

MRS. BARNES IS HOSTESS TO TILLCUM BRIDGE CLUB

Beautiful fall flowers, and the Thanksgiving motif formed the decorations when Mrs. E. A. Barnes entertained the Sutherlin Tillicum Bridge Club Tuesday at a one o'clock dessert luncheon at her home on West Central Avenue.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Wesley Thompson, guest, and the following members: mesdames Vern Holgate, Frank McCord, Howard Wahl, Claude Harvey, C. J. Bielman, John Chase, Harry Barker, Edward Lamoreaux, Cecil Carr, Albert Karcher and the hostess, Mrs. Barnes.

For the afternoon's contract bridge Mrs. Barker won high. Mrs. Lamoreaux second and Mrs. Bielman the traveling gosse. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. C. J. Bielman on Comstock Road, Tuesday, November 30.

style from a beautifully appointed lace-covered table. The next meeting will be the Dec. 15 Christmas party at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. W. A. Sylwester, 1170 Military St. Members and friends are most cordially invited and those desiring transportation are asked to call 3-7212.
