Leaves Thursday — Mrs. Ward Green, who is vice grand guardian of Job's Daughters of Oregon, left Thursday for her home in Portland, following a stay in Roseburg visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Rhodes.

Visits Here — Miss Rosalie Hanston, art teacher at Oakridge, attended the convention held by the Oregon Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation in Roseburg last week and while here visited Miss Carla Taylor, Miss Hanston and Miss Taylor are sorority sisters. Both attended University of Oregon last year.

Flying To Seattle — Mrs. Edwin G. Young of Roseburg is leaving by West Coast Airline Saturday for Seattle to visit her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. Kenneth Pearce, and to attend the wedding, Dec. 19, of the Pearce's daughter, Pamela. Mrs. Young will be joined there next week for the wedding by Mr. Young, who is driving to Seattle.

Will Attend Luncheon — Mrs. S. J. Shoemaker, Mrs. W. H. Allen and Mrs. Bertram Shoemaker of Roseburg plan to go to Grants Pass Sunday to attend a luncheon party to be given by Mrs. Dorothy Billingslea for relatives of Sam Shoemaker and Verna Palmer. Miss Palmer will become the bride of Mr. Shoemaker Dec. 28 in Grants Pass. He is the son of Mrs. S. J. Shoemaker of this city.

New Manager — Mrs. Laurence Moore of Roseburg was recently appointed unit manager of this district for Tupperware Company. She accompanied the state distributor, Mrs. Mauri Solari, to Grants Pass on business last Saturday. Mrs. Solari was in Roseburg last week visiting with employees of the company, which included Pat Schleuter, Doris Friend, Peggy Goins, Doris Casteel and Virginia Roberts.

Closed Two Days — Mrs. C. S. Heinline has closed her piano studio for today and Saturday, while she is in Portland attending the dedication of the Willamette View Manor, a new home-apartment house of 262 apartments, one of which will be occupied next year by Mrs. Heinline. The 2-day celebration will include a banquet Saturday evening for the founders in the dining room of the new building. Sunday morning service will be preached by Bishop Grant at the Centenary Wilbur Methodist Church. The dedicatory service will be held at 3 p.m. at the apartment. Special speakers and a program will be included in the service. Mrs. Heinline plans to return to Roseburg Monday.

Return From Vacation — Mr. and Mrs. A. U. Taylor are back at their home in Roseburg following a month's vacation trip. They made stops in Idaho, and at Altamont, Kans., visited his brother. In Missouri and in Oklahoma City, Okla., they visited relatives. At Seymour, Texas, they visited a former Roseburg minister, the Rev. Rae Kleinfeldt, and his family. Sightseeing trips were enjoyed at Corpus Christi, McAllen and in the citrus belt of Texas. At Fresno, Calif., they visited Mrs. Taylor's sister, Mrs. Arley Terry, who came home with them. They took her to Portland last weekend to visit other relatives before returning to her home. They also report visiting the famous Falcon Dam in Texas.
