

Mrs. W.C. Callison Hostess To Bridge Club On Wednesday

Mrs. W. C. Callison entertained her bridge club at a lovely one o'clock luncheon Wednesday at her attractive home. The holiday motif was beautifully carried out in the decorations.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Earl Plummer, Mrs. J. P. Moisenbacher, Mrs. Alva Laws, Mrs. W. C. Holmes, Mrs. Forrest McKay, Mrs. R. W. Sedell, Mrs. Fred Stever and the hostess, Mrs. Callison.

High score for the afternoon was won by Mrs. Callison with Mrs. Stever winning the traveling prize.

DAR HAS INTERESTING MEETING AT EARL WILEY'S SATURDAY AFTERNOON

Mrs. Earl Wiley, assisted by Mrs. Jack Chapman and Mrs. Kenneth Fitzgerald, entertained members of the Umpqua Chapter of DAR Saturday at the former's home, 809 So. Kane St., for luncheon.

Mrs. Wiley's home was attractively decorated for the holiday season and there were many Christmas scenes depicted throughout the rooms. The luncheon table carried out the holiday colors with red candles and holly.

Mrs. Lester Nielson, regent, opened the meeting by having members sing Christmas songs. Mrs. Cecelia Day, secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting, and a note of thanks from Mrs. Albert Powers, state regent, who visited Umpqua Chapter for the November meeting. In Mrs. Powers' note she again urged members to stress good American citizenship.

Mrs. W. M. Campbell, chairman of this committee, reported the good citizenship girl had been chosen who will be presented with a gift and pin from Umpqua Chapter and will compete with all state girls chosen in the same manner, for a scholarship. Her name was withheld until she and her mother will be presented to the chapter.

Mrs. C. D. Albright reported on the Chemawa School, which is a government operated school just north of Salem, and the Celilo Indians, which is on the Columbia gorge near The Dalles. A motion picture was made and carried to send money to both groups, and as much good and used clothing as could be collected. Also good deer skins could be used if they were obtainable. Mrs. Nielson urged as many members as possible to attend the state meeting to be held in Portland Feb. 28, March 1 and March 2. Miss Gertrude S. Caraway, national president, general will be the honored guest at this meeting.

Mrs. Wiley introduced Mrs. E. M. Tilton, wife of the Rev. Tilton of the Methodist Church, who was guest speaker for the afternoon. Mrs. Tilton gave a most interesting and inspiring talk, "Christianity and Patriotism" was the theme of her talk and that meant love of country and love of service to others. She cited many instances showing the benefits and blessing one has by living in the United States, as compared to those of other countries. Some of the benefits she mentioned were: freedom of speech, abundance of food, educational system and the peace and security in ones home. Mrs. Tilton closed her message by saying 47 years ago a Danish man started the Red Cross seal sale; the first year of the national seal sale was in 1907 and every year since this amount has been increased so that last year 4,000,000 were sold.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. V. J. Micelli, 600 E. Washington St., Jan. 15, with Mrs. Washington Hughes and Mrs. C. D. Albright assisting hostesses.
