Douglas County Mounted will meet Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the fairgrounds with Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Carter and Mr. and Mrs. Dick DeBernardi in charge.

SUTHERLIN LIONS AUXILIARY HAVE DINNER

The Lady Lions Auxiliary held its regular December meeting and Christmas party at the Sutherlin Grange Hall with the ladies of the grange preparing the dinner.

The tables were beautifully decorated in the Christmas motif by the hostesses, Mrs. Nelson Grubbe and Mrs. C. A. Petherick. A white elephant and plant auction was held after the business meeting. There was no exchange of Christmas gifts, as each member brought a gift, which will be sent to the blind school children at Salem.

ROBERTS CREEK GROUP HAS MEETING

Roberts Creek Rebels made Christmas cookies at the sixth meeting of the club at the home of Mrs. James Bemetz. During the roll call members told what Christmas meant to them. Mike Lander gave a talk on preparing fruit crisp. Games were enjoyed and gifts presented to each member by the leader. Hostesses were Mary Stancliff and Bette Hadwen.

Next meeting will be Jan. 6, Robert Stancliff and Loyd Kruse will be hosts.

CHURCH GROUPS HOLD GAY CHRISTMAS PARTIES

Christmas festivities are much in evidence around the North Roseburg Church and in the homes of the Sunday School teachers and members.

The first of the special Christmas parties was held Saturday at the home of Ellis Campbell, when Mrs. Campbell, teacher of the junior girls' Sunday School Class, entertained her class of fourteen girls. Carols, games, exchange of gifts around the tree and refreshments were enjoyed.

On Thursday night of last week, 43 members of the YF enjoyed a party in the basement of the parsonage. These young people had assumed the responsibility of decorating the tree and the church and did this work during the evening. Carols were sung, games played, gifts exchanged and refreshments served. YF advisors present were Mrs. Phyllis Bradley and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stone. These young people represent two classes of whom Mrs. Ralph Aremstier and Mrs. C. J. Bradley are teachers.

Friday night the Home-builders class (young married people) combined an evening of pleasure and work when they met to sack the treats to be given to the children Sunday morning. Marvin E. Smith is teacher of this class. There was caroling at the homes of shut-ins, packing the treats, devotions led by Don Bodeen and exchange of gifts, after which refreshments were served.

ROBERT PERRY AND DARLINE GORDON MARRY IN NOVEMBER

Robert W. Perry of Myrtle Creek and Miss Darline Gordon of Klamath Falls were married, Nov. 10, at Klamath Falls by L. L. Maddox at an informal wedding at the Maddox home. The immediate families attended.

The bride was beautiful in a white satin brocade ballerina gown with finger tip veil. Joyce Lobbin, bridesmaid, wore a pink silk ballerina dress. Frank Milton was best man.

Guests present for the ceremony were Mrs. W. A. Gordon, mother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Perry, parents of the bridegroom, of Myrtle Creek. The three sisters and two brothers of the bride were also present.

Huge bouquets of white chrysanthemums and floor candelabra formed the decorations.

The couple is residing at Klamath Falls, where the bridegroom is a student at OTI.

MRS. SCOVELL IS HOSTESS TO GROUP

The Deaconesses of the Sutherlin Christian Church held their December meeting and Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Joe Scovell Tuesday evening. The home was beautifully decorated in the Christmas motif and a lighted tree graced one corner of the room, with the nativity scene beneath it.

A short business meeting was held and a social hour was enjoyed with the exchange of Christmas gifts.

At the close of the evening Mrs. Scovell served refreshments.

4H SEWING GROUPS TO HAVE CHRISTMAS PARTY

The first and third year sewing groups of Cloakes Ferry 4H Club met Thursday at the home of Patly Beardsley. The first year group finished needle cases, and the third year group finished its garment protectors.

A game was featured and the girls drew names for the Christmas party to be held Tuesday at the home of the leader, Mrs. Fred Harder. The girls are saving Christmas cards for the Children's Hospital in Portland. Refreshments were served.

LEGION AND AUXILIARY ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY TO BE TONIGHT

The annual Christmas party of the American Legion and Auxiliary will be held at 7:30 tonight at the hall. Those attending are asked to bring a toy for a child and ladies are to bring either sandwiches or cookies. An interesting program has been planned by Mrs. B. W. Maddox and Mrs. H.E. DeBernardi Jr.

SDC GRANGE TO HOLD CHRISTMAS PARTY SATURDAY

South Deer Creek Grange will hold its annual Christmas party at the hall at 8:15 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 25. Santa Claus will be on hand and gifts will be exchanged. Treats will be served. All members and their families are most cordially invited to enjoy the affair.

ELKS CHRISTMAS PARTY TO BE HELD TONIGHT

The annual Elks Christmas party will be held at 8 o'clock tonight at the temple. Mrs. Cecil Hays, chairman, reports that the men are to bring a gift for a man and the ladies are to bring a gift for a woman. Guests may be invited. Ladies attending are to bring sandwiches and pickles, olives or potato chips.
