Record Douglas Fir Plywood Said Produced

PORTLAND (AP)—More Douglas fir plywood was produced this year than ever before, the magazine Timberman said in its annual review.

The magazine estimated the total at 4.4 billion square feet, including 3.85 billion in the western United States and 580 million square feet in British Columbia.

With other types of wood, the total plywood production for the West probably was 4.8 billion square feet, the magazine said.

Demand continues to increase, and several new plants will be opened in 1955, the Timberman said.

Federal Aid For Roads Listed At $49 Million

PORTLAND (AP)—Federal aid for Pacific Northwest road construction will go up to a record $49,100,964 next year, the federal Bureau of Public Roads said here Thursday.

F. E. Andrews, division engineer for the bureau, said the total might be even higher if the President's proposal for more expenditures on interstate highways is approved.

Already allocated for 1955 are $14,061,986 for Washington, $13,531,734 for Montana, $12,889,469 for Oregon, and $8,697,775 for Idaho. The states will contribute matching funds.

Watchnight Service At Melrose Church

By NETTIE WOODRUFF

At the Melrose Community Church Christmas program there were 225 in attendance. A lighted tree and a program was featured. Later the exchange of gifts was held by each class.

There will be a New Year's Eve watch party held at the Community Church Friday evening at 7:30. Games will be played and at 9:30 a lunch will be served followed by a moving picture entitled "Reaching From Heaven." Devotional services will be held at midnight.

The Community Church trustees met Monday evening with the Rev. Henry Peck to make plans to start a new edition on the west side of the present building. The church congregation has outgrown the classrooms and see the need of more room. The Rev. Peck broadcast a sermon over KRXL at 7:30 every Sunday evening.

Visits Children

Ando Meckenson of Newport came to Melrose Sunday to take his children, Larry, Clancy and Laura, home with him for a visit. Their grandmother, Mrs. Pearl Harris, who takes care of them, went to Portland to visit a brother whom she had not seen for six years.

Wesley Toppings and daughter, Brenda; Mrs. Margaret Toppings and Mrs. Maxine Simon spent Tuesday in Eugene shopping and visiting. They returned home in the evening.

Kernan Turner returned home Wednesday following Christmas and several days of visiting in Portland with his brother, Ralph James, who is attending Reed College. His parents returned home Sunday following Christmas Day in Portland with their son.

Roger Reece, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Reece, underwent an appendectomy at Mercy Hospital in Roseburg Tuesday.

The interior of the Melrose Grange hall is being redecorated. The work is being done by Paul Abel.
