VETERANS GROUPS ENJOY PARTY-DINNER

Two local veterans organizations, Patrick W. Kelley Post 2468, and Deutscher-Ferrine Chapter No. 9 Disabled American Veterans and Auxiliaries were joint hosts Thursday evening as they served Christmas dinner to 125 members and their friends and children at Veterans Memorial Building on Garden Valley Road.

Among the guests were: Dr. and Mrs. George Wadsworth, manager of the Veterans Facility; Commander and Mrs. Lloyd Winningham of Myrtle Point; and Mrs. Louise Heiden, state commander of DAV Auxiliary.

After dinner the floors were cleared and the youngsters romped through a series of games. The evening merriment was topped off by an exchange of gifts among the children and distribution of nuts, candy and fruit. This was one of the largest and most successful parties held in recent months.

SUTHERLIN WOMEN HAVE PARTY THURSDAY

Christian Women's Fellowship of the Sutherlin Christian church enjoyed a Christmas party last Thursday in the social rooms of the church, which were beautifully decorated in the Christmas motif by Mrs. Dorothy West and Mrs. Eleanor Woollett.

Maevel Scovell led the devotionals and read the Christmas story. Mrs. Goldie Bentley gave a reading. Laurie Watson sang a solo and Mrs. Irene Clark, a musical reading. Grace Pickles told about the first indoor Christmas tree; Genevieve Cox and Goldie Bentley, gave legends.

The exchange of gifts was in charge of Ada Abene, and the program, by Goldie Bentley.

After a social hour and gift exchange, refreshments were served, with Grace Pickles in charge.

SUTHERLIN CHURCH PRESENTS PROGRAM

The Sutherlin Christian church held its Christmas program last Wednesday evening at the church. The program consisted of the reading of Biblical stories, with shadow pictures depicting many characters; the choir sang carols along with the reading.

After the program Christmas treats were distributed to the entire congregation.

WILBUR SCHOOL PRESENTS FINE PROGRAM TUESDAY

Parents and friends of the Wilbur School children attended the annual Christmas program in the school auditorium Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Olive Blondell's first and second graders began the entertainment with a play. During the play little Ronnie Hink sang a solo.

Mrs. Patricia Waterfields second grade class gave an impressive choral reading with Christmas songs. It was an unusual type of program for such small children and indicated much training on the part of the teacher.

The third and fifth grade classes, directed by Mrs. Josephine Parkhurst, presented a three scene comedy, with Santa and all his helpers. Margarita Yraguen played an accordion solo in one scene of the play.

Ending the program was a portrayal of "No Room in the Inn," by students of Jim Hennebeck's sixth grade class. The students sang carols between scenes of the play. All classes were accompanied by Mrs. Blondell at the piano.

GLENDALE SCHOOL PRESENTS OPERETTA

A near-capacity crowd filled the Glendale High School auditorium Tuesday evening for the presentation of the carol operetta, "One Christmas," by members of the Glendale Grade School. Practically the entire grade school participated in the program.

Santa Claus, played by Lester Diltz, decided to take a Christmas journey over all the world and observe Christmas customs in nations everywhere. Other Christmas carols between scenes of the stage with him while Christmas customs and Christmas carols were acted and sung at the front of the auditorium below.

The entire production, much of it in costume, was directed by Don Carter, music instructor. Pianists were Judy Smart and Pat Ball.

REUNION HELD AT GLENDALE HOME

A family reunion at the Bill Chalker home in Glendale during the Christmas weekend brought together Mr. and Mrs. Dale Chalker and children, Ricky and Sue, of Canoga Park, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Chalker of Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Chalker and children, Linda and Steven; and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ramey of Glendale.

Those present in addition to the sponsors, were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Chavaris, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Johns, Mr. and Mrs. Angus Cripps, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Miller and Gary Miller.
