

THE WEDDING of Marlene Frances Pruitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Pruitt, and Charles E. Scroggins, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Scroggins, took place Dec. 12 at the Dillard Methodist Church with the Rev. R. E. Feenstra officiating. (Picture by Winston Studio).

At an afternoon ceremony at the Dillard Methodist Church Sunday, Dec. 12, Marlene Frances Pruitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Pruitt, became the bride of Charles E. Scroggins, U.S. Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Scroggins. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. E. Feenstra.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a gown of white tulle. Her illusion fingertip veil was held in place with a fitted cap trimmed with pearls and she carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Vieta Pruitt, cousin of the bride was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Arlene Pulley and June McGuire, who wore blue gowns and carried white carnations. Candelights, Milzi Dowdy and Elva Johnson, wore ballerina length gowns of yellow and blue and each carried nosegays of white carnations.

Jimmie Ottele was ring bearer and little Susie Harris was flower-girl.

Best man was Rodney Pruitt, brother of the bride, and ushers were Gaylen Fish and George Johnson. Miss Loretta Smith, accompanied by Mrs. Glen Ryder, pianist, sang "I Love You Truly." Mrs. Ryder also played the wedding marches.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church annex with Mrs. Ray Gogert and Mrs. Ted Peterson in charge. Mrs. Jesse Ottele, aunt of the bride, was in charge of the cake, and putting were Mrs. Fred Burks and Mrs. Frank True. Janet Smith had charge of the gifts.

The bride's mother wore a two piece dress of teal blue with red accessories, and the bridegroom's mother was dressed in an afternoon frock, accented with black accessories.

After the ceremony the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in northern California and points of interest in Oregon.

For going away the bride wore a grey suit with white accessories and a carnation corsage.

The bridegroom will return to his ship the USS St. Paul, docked in Long Beach, Calif., Jan. 2 and the couple will make their home near there.

REBEKAHS PLAN INSTALLATION JAN. 11

ROSEBURG EASTERN STAR HAS LARGE PARTY TO HONOR HAMPTONS

At the last regular meeting of the year, Roseburg Chapter No. 8, Order of the Eastern Star, celebrated the holiday season with a Christmas party and program, and honored the presiding officers, Ramona and Ray Hampton, worthy matron and patron.

During the meeting Edward Kohlhaugen surprised the chapter with the gift of a new baton in honor of his mother, Marietta Kohlhaugen, the first grand marshal of the grand chapter of Oregon, and a charter member and past matron of Roseburg chapter. He also presented a Christian flag to the chapter in honor of his aunt, Frances Howell, first grand conductress of Oregon, and a past matron of Roseburg chapter. After dedicating the new emblems, Ramona Hampton expressed the appreciation of the chapter and extended thanks to Mr. Kohlhaugen and his family for their thoughtfulness.

Christmas corsages were given to each lady as they entered the hall, and the officers each received a gift from the worthy matron and patron. The officers in turn presented the Hamptons with a gift of cut glass bowls as a token of their appreciation for the wonderful year of service given.

A group of Job's Daughters assisted with the program. Caslene Felker charmed her listeners with the story of "The Littlest Angel." The other girls provided the musical background for the reading, with Honored Queen Joan Phillips at the piano.

Mrs. Leon Mulkey, accompanied by Mrs. Hallie Woodward, played two violin solos, "White Christmas" and "Trees." Following this, the Courtesy Girls gave a drill the Christmas trees. Those in the drill were Lucille Verbeck, Connie Pratt, Ruby Weaver, Evelyn Ashbury, Winifred Travis, Gladys Hart and Iris Inman. Mrs. Woodward also directed the choral group, who sang three numbers. The members of the group present were Frances Elliott, Frances Gerretsen, Harriet Turner, Mattie Lee Taylor, Margaret Austin, Gladys Wiley, Doris Ritzman, Bea Churchill, Elsie Powell, Verle Wells and Ramona Hampton. Mrs. Gordon Stewart accompanied them.

The chapter room was decorated with Noble fir trees as a background on the stage, as lighted Christmas trees on the Star point pedestals and at other points about the room. The tallest and most perfect tree was the center of interest with all its gay decorations and Christmas lights. Wreaths of greenery, cones and red ribbons were hung at each window and door. Mr. and Mrs. Hampton were assisted by Mrs. Walter Olmscheid and Mrs. Ernest Wentling in the decorations.

Delicious refreshments were served by the committee following the meeting. The dining hall was gayly decorated with Christmas arrangements made by Mrs. Bert Gilbert. Co-chairmen of the committee were Mr. and Mrs. Archie Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Turner. Assisting them were Mrs. Kenneth Quine, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Olson, Mrs. Clyde Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Scott, Mrs. Emily Judd, Mrs. C. S. Heinline, Mrs. Leroy Hiatt, Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Bond, Mrs. Floyd Powell and Miss Esther Elliott.

MISS MURIEL MITCHELL SPEAKS TO MEMBERS OF FIFTY-PLUS CLUB

An organizational meeting of the Fifty-Plus group was held at the Roseburg Woman's Club, Tuesday at a one-thirty dessert luncheon. The table was attractively decorated by Rose Ashley. "Fun After Fifty" was the topic of Miss Mitchell's delightful talk in which she said "little thoughts covered more ground than fun." Ideas change from year to year about age itself, she said, and fifty was called the blessed age as then one can enjoy all ages. The quality of employment, she continued, does not change with age. Inspirational incidents gave her talk charm and beauty.

Mrs. Herschell Scott opened the meeting and welcomed the guests. The Fifty-Plus Club is a department of the Roseburg Woman's Club and will support the club in its endeavors of service to others. The following volunteered to make tally cards for a party to be given by the Woman's club Jan. 21: Bess Wharton, E. Gilliland, V. Scott, O. Carter, M. Jaeger and M. Gosnell. Others enjoying the meeting were Hattie Belle Geddes, Harriet Sullivan, Mabel Hafer, Margaret Burt, E. Taylor, E. Kier, E. Beaver, Della Short, Dora Dixon and R. Dishman. The group will meet the fourth Tuesday of each month. A nominating committee was appointed to select a slate of officers for the next meeting.

MRS. McDONALD IS HOSTESS TO CLUB

Mrs. Ann McDonald was hostess to the Mothers Club of Green at a delayed Christmas party Friday. Games were the feature of the evening around the beautifully decorated Christmas tree.
