Could you get by if you had to pay cash

How many people could enjoy the pleasure and convenience of an automobile, home appliances, household furnishings, or family wardrobe purchases if they had to pay cash?

And could you secure the cash immediately to pay the physician or hospital for a sudden and unexpected illness... to pay the dentist... to pay the fuel dealer all at one time for the winter's supply of fuel?

Fortunately for most of us, we don't have to pay cash for everything we buy. We can take advantage of the liberal, flexible system of consumer credit which enables us to buy and enjoy the things we want, when we want them, and to pay for them later. Whether our income is large or small, we can enjoy the privilege of buying almost anything, anywhere, if our credit record is good.

And the only way to maintain a good credit record is to buy only what you know you can pay for—and pay for it on the date it is due.
