The marriage of Alyce Ruth Gibson, daughter of Mrs. Esther Wilson, 1454 Harrison St., Roseburg, to Albert Frank Wolf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Wolf of Oswego, was an event of Nov. 20, at the Holy Rosary Church in Portland.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Robert E. Baughman of Yoncalla. She wore a floor-length gown of white slipper satin, with three-quarter length sleeves, a Queen Ann collar and buttons down to the waist in front. Her veil was of bridal illusion, finger tip in length, and was held in place by orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of white roses and stephanotis. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.

Mrs. Wayne Thompson, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. She was dressed in an aqua halter-length gown of net over satin. Her flowers were yellow roses and stephanotis.

Miss Jeanette Stravens, niece of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. She was dressed in a coral pink gown identical to the matron of honor. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and stephanotis.

Paul Wolf, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Gilbert Wolf, also the bridegroom's brother, and Warren Belden, cousin of the bride, were ushers.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony at the Odd Fellows hall in Oswego.

After a wedding trip to Seattle, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Wolf will live in Portland where they are both employed at the J. K. Gill company.

Miss Mary Louise Hachenberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Hachenberg of Grants Pass, and Kenneth L. McGinnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon McGinnis of Canyonville, were united in marriage Saturday, Dec. 18, at the Newman Methodist Church in Grants Pass. Dr. F. W. Werts performed the double ring ceremony at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Decorations in the church consisted of baskets of chrysanthemums of bronze, pink and gold and white chandeliers. Organist Mrs. Raymond McCallister accompanied Mrs. Joe Ray, sister of the bride, and Gilbert Vargas, who sang a duet.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a cream satin gown with train. The gown had long sleeves with points at the wrist and a sweetheart neckline. She wore a short nylon tulle veil with headpiece of pearl orange blossoms and carried a white Bible and a bouquet of pink rosebuds, tied with streamers of pink and satin ribbon. She wore white satin slippers.

Maid of honor was Miss Janet Lewis, who wore a blue taffeta and lace formal gown and a head-dress of blue satin ribbon. Her flowers were bronze, pink and gold chrysanthemums. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Kiehl McGinnis and Miss Gloria Wilkeson, both wearing pink taffeta formal, and Miss Earleen Wilson, who wore a lavender satin formal.

Candlelighters were Miss Mary Bartlett and Miss Marilyn Thompson, who wore blue taffeta gowns of ballerina length with overskirts of blue nylon tulle. Delbert McGinnis, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and ushers were Keith McGinnis, brother of the bridegroom, and Frank Shehorn.

Mother of the bridegroom wore a mauve tweed suit, pink satin hat, blouse trimmed in pearls and a carnation corsage. The bride's mother wore a navy blue gabardine suit, pink hat and a carnation corsage.

A reception was held in the church social room following the wedding. A beautiful two tiered wedding cake, decorated with pink rosebuds and silver leaves and surrounded by golden chrysanthemums, graced the table which was covered with a lace cloth. Mrs. Steve Yahner served the cake; Mrs. Richard Hachenberg, served punch, assisted by Miss Lorna Thompson. Miss Rachel Ordway arranged the gifts, and Mrs. Vinie Nelson presented the guest book, assisted by Mrs. George Temple, grandmother of the bride.

For her wedding trip the bride chose a mauve tweed suit with blue velvet hat and white accessories. The bride graduated from Grants Pass High school in 1954 and is attending OTI at Klamath Falls.
