

Tennessee Evangelists Tell Of Travels Sunday

By MRS. GEORGE MUNSON
Those who attended the Umpqua Sunday School Sunday were given a rare treat in story and song by Ida and Lee Upole, from Tennessee. They were guests at the morning service. This young couple has been working in the Salvation

Army and also in other Evangelistic groups.
Former County Resident
Ida was a Roseburg girl and her folks, Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain still live here. She gave a hamlet story of Africa and Mr. Upole preached a sermon. Both sang. Their plans for future work are not complete, but they hope for Christian Home Mission work.

Rev. and Mrs. Art Kelstrip were also guests of the Sunday School. Rev. Kelstrip had news of a man member, Rev. Lester Spencer, who for years was in the work of the American Sunday School Union, here in the Northwest, has just been appointed Secretary of Missions in the United States, for the ASSU in Philadelphia. It was also announced another program is planned for Sunday evening at 7:30. Rev. Targgart R.D., head of the Sunday schools in the district, will be the speaker.

Mrs. Garth Judd and two children left by plane for Anchorage, Alaska, where they will join S. Sgt. Garth Judd who is stationed there. The family have been at Umpqua for several months with Mr. and Mrs. Lath Judd, waiting until they could go north.

Mrs. B. Marlow, from Folesom, Calif., and Mrs. Bill White from Los Angeles, are houseguests at the Howard Burdette home near Umpqua. Both Mrs. White and Mrs. Marlow are sisters of Mrs. Burdette and have come home with the Burdettes from their trip south.
Kenneth Henry, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Henry, left on Monday to return to classes at O.T.C. in Klamath Falls where he is a student. He was accompanied by Bill Ellison, who plans to attend school there too. He will enroll for Diesel Engineering.
Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Mobley

PRINCIPALS TO MEET
Principals from junior high schools and high schools of Oregon will meet for a two-day conference on the University of Oregon campus Jan. 21 and 22.
This is the fifth annual meeting of school principals of secondary education sponsored by the Oregon Association of Secondary School Principals, the Oregon State Department of Education and the University of Oregon.

and Mrs. Simmons of Umpqua were dinner guests on Christmas at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hughes in Roseburg.
Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Cooper and family spent New Years Day in Winston at the home of Mr. Cooper's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cooper, and on Sunday they were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Aydelotte at their home on Melrose Road.

Self-Obligation Bond Permit Asked In Bill

EUGENE (AP)—The Legislature will be asked to pass a bill which would raise the limit of self-obligation bonds and permit construction of a $600,000 student union building at Portland State College, the State Board of Higher Education reported Saturday.
Chancellor Charles Byrne said this increased borrowing power and $100,000 already collected in student fees would enable the board to undertake immediate construction of the building.
This project would be in addition to the $850,000 classroom structure already awaiting approval by the Legislature.
Byrne said the board also will ask for additional money to hire more teachers and to raise teachers' pay.
