CAMAS VALLEY GARDENERS HOLD RECENT MEETING

The Camas Valley Garden Club held the first meeting of the new year Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Ernest Booth. Mrs. Lee Banks, newly elected chairman, presided at the business meeting.

Committee chairmen for the year were appointed as follows: program, Mrs. Ted Wiley; fire box, Mrs. Louis Pryor; handicraft show, Mrs. Dave Thrush; year book, Mrs. Axel Jeppeson; spring flower show, Mrs. Lee Wilson; historian, Mrs. Harry Boyle; polio Mother's March, Mrs. Dave Thrush; wildflower, Mrs. Ted Wiley; bird, Mrs. Guy Moore; publicity, Mrs. William Cunningham and parliamentarian, Mrs. Lee Wilson.

A lovely floral arrangement of Wallflowers was brought to the meeting by Mrs. Ted Wiley.

The group decided to continue with the annual school handicraft show. This spring's show will be the seventh year the garden club has sponsored it.

The program for the afternoon was given by Mrs. Lee Wilson, who chose as her subject, "Tuberous Begonias, Their Culture and Care." The program was most informative as well as interesting as Mrs. Wilson began with hints of tuber selections and led through the planting and into the final stage of winter storage.

A special meeting of the Camas Valley Garden Club will be held Thursday, Jan. 13, at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Dave Thrush. Plans will be completed at this meeting for the polio fund Mothers March. All members are urged to be present.

Mrs. Booth served delicious refreshments to 14 members and three guests.
