Montana, Alberta Agree On Trucking Commerce

GREAT FALLS, Mont. (AP)—Montana and the province of Alberta, Canada, agreed Tuesday on a program to provide full reciprocity on interstate truck commerce.

Henry Helland, planning engineer for the Montana Highway Department, said the reciprocal agreement would not include a prorating of interstate truck fleet licensing because of existing Alberta laws, however.

TOO MANY BABIES

EUGENE (AP)—Resignations of school teachers because they are about to rear families have reached "epidemic proportions," Supt. Clarence Hines said Tuesday.

He said 10 teachers either have quit or have said they will quit shortly. In the five years to last July 1 only 21 resigned for the same reason, he said. He added he was at a loss to know where replacements could be found.

Fire, Theft, Collision Insurance Rate Reduced

PORTLAND (AP)—A rate reduction for fire, theft and collision insurance in Oregon was approved Tuesday by Robert B. Taylor, state insurance commissioner.

The reduced rates, which apply on insurance written by firms associated with the National Automobile Underwriters Assn., were expected to force down rates of non-associated firms.

The new schedules, which provide for a 6 per cent reduction on $100 and $50 deductible collision insurance in Portland and approximately 5 1/2 per cent for the rest of the state, are retroactive on all policies issued on or after last Dec. 1.

Rates on fire, theft and comprehensive insurance were cut about 15 per cent.

The new rates apply on both private passenger and commercial automobiles.

Success Of Flexible Price Supports Being Questioned

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Agriculture Department report raised questions Tuesday as to the degree of success of the controversial flexible price support system in influencing dairy production.

Last April 1, Secretary Benson reduced government price guarantees for milk from 90 to 75 per cent of parity. Parity is a price declared by law to be fair to farmers in relation to their costs.

Advocates of flexible supports believe that in times of surplus, price props should be reduced for the dual purpose of discouraging production and of increasing consumption.

Conversely, in times of shortage, they say price guarantees should be increased to encourage production and to discourage consumption.

In reducing the dairy support level, Benson said the resulting lower prices should bring about some downward adjustments in dairy production as well as increases in consumer buying of dairy items.

A department report issued Monday showed that milk production between the date the lower supports went into effect and Jan. 1 this year increased nearly 1 1/2 per cent, instead of going down. The production over this span was reported at 95,000,000,000 pounds compared with 93,700,000,000 pounds in the corresponding nine-month period a year earlier—when the higher supports were in effect. Milk production in 1954 set a new record of 123,800,000,000 pounds, 2 per cent above the previous record of 121,200,000,000 pounds in 1953.

Department dairy specialists said it may take a couple of years to gain production decreases sought under flexible supports. They explained that many dairy-men, having no alternative types of farm production to turn to, actually stepped up production under the lower supports in efforts to maintain incomes at levels enjoyed under the higher supports.

Meant To Frighten Dog, Man Kills It Instead

CONCORD, Calif. (AP)—William Miller said he only meant to frighten his neighbor's dog but killed it with a shotgun by mistake.

Pleading guilty of the shooting, the 47-year-old truck driver explained he had loaded a shell with beans—but by mistake put one loaded with shot into his gun when he fired at the dog.

Municipal Justice John T. Garaventa fined Miller $150 for illegally discharging a firearm within the city limits, placed him on probation for two years, and declared: "You're lucky you didn't hit a child."

Price For Live Hogs Drops To Lower Level

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The price for live hogs has dropped to the lowest level since December of 1952, at several markets.

The top price at Kansas City Tuesday was $17.50 a hundredweight, about $1 below last April's six-year peak.

Price rollbacks included up to 75 cents at Kansas City, 50 cents at St. Louis, Oklahoma City, Wichita and Chicago, and 25 cents at St. Joseph, Mo.

Market analysts expect a seasonal increase to the annual high in March or April, but believe it will be somewhat lower than last year's top.
