Timber Land In City Puzzles Classifiers

SALEM, Ore. — John N. Davies, Hubbard, believes he's the only man in the nation who owns 134 acres of timber land inside a modern city of 400,000 persons. Davies told the State Forestry Department that he can't trade or sell his Portland forest. "It looks like I'm going to have to turn it into a Christmas tree farm. I have asked the Forestry Department to classify this area as reforestation land, but they said it is unusual to classify forests within city limits."
