

Bridges' Wife Granted Divorce

RENO (R)—Mrs. Nancy Bridges, was granted a divorce Thursday from Harry Bridges, West Coast longshore union leader. Mrs. Bridges charged mental cruelty, claiming her husband worked too much, and often was away from home. She also charged him with being cool and indifferent.

She was granted custody of a son, Robert Alfred, 6, and awarded $200 a month child support. A property settlement, previously made in California, was accepted by the court. Its terms were not revealed.

The couple was married in San Francisco Sept. 27, 1946.

Bridges is president of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union. A civil suit is pending against him by the United States government which seeks to revoke his U.S. citizenship on grounds that he fraudulently denied he ever was a Communist. Bridges was born in Australia.

PRINCESS MARRIES
BERCHTESGADEN, Germany (R)—Princess Sophie, 19, youngest daughter of Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria, and Belgium's prince Jean-Engelbert, 33, Duke of Arenberg, were married Thursday in the 12th century chapel of her father's castle.
