

NEW YORK (AP)—Millions of television fans across the nation witnessed another electronic milestone Wednesday night—the first telecast of a presidential press conference.

The four video networks shared in airing films made at the regular White House session Wednesday afternoon. NBC cameras, under a pool arrangement, recorded the event, but the CBS network was the first on the air at 7 p. m. (EST) with the 28 minutes and 25 seconds of film okayed by the White House.

From then until midnight the various networks showed the films from complete versions down to two minute briefs.

Hormel's Press Agent Admits Firing Shot

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The press agent of meat packing heir George Hormel is under arrest after he admitted, detectives said, that he fired a bullet through a window of Hormel's apartment.

Det. A. W. Hubka quoted the press agent, Tony Kent, as saying he fired the shot at Hormel's suggestion. Hormel denied it. Kent and actor Fred Hartman were booked Wednesday night on suspicion of "feloniously and maliciously discharging a gun into an inhabited dwelling." The rifle was found in Kent's home, officers said. Hubka said Kent told him Hormel, 36, suggested the shooting as a way to "get even with the cops" for Hormel's arrest on charges of possessing marijuana.

Otto Loel Waives Extradition; Murder Charged

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP)—Oto Loel, 44, one of the FBI's 10 most wanted men captured Monday, Thursday waived extradition to Oklahoma where he is wanted in connection with the slaying of a young woman traveling companion.

Loel, of Compton, Calif., had been living at Sanford near here almost a year in a rude shack on the swampy edge of a junk yard and working as a machinist.

He never has said why he killed Mrs. Elizabeth Jeanne Henderson, 31, who had arranged a share-the-cost trip with him on a journey eastward. She was going to see her mother in Ohio.

Loel was arrested when he was in the Oklahoma City motel Jan. 10 a year ago and her partly nude body discovered three days later.

Loel was arrested when the FBI in Washington checked on the fingerprints of a man arrested in Sanford on a drunk charge and later released on bond. The man gave his name as Jack McCoy but was in reality Loel.

The government said it would not, as customary, reveal when he would be taken West. Loel once was police chief, briefly, at Sandy, Ore. His estranged wife a year ago was living at Roseburg.

Judge Disagrees With Drink Buying Age Limit

PORTLAND (AP)—A city judge said here Thursday that if a person is old enough to be married he is old enough to buy an alcoholic drink.

Judge John J. Murchison said he believes the State Liquor Control Commission is wrong in requiring a person to be 21 before he can buy a drink.

Murchison cited state law, saying that a person is deemed to have reached his or her majority upon being married.

All this came up because Mrs. Joyce Whitmore, 18, was accused of buying drinks here and of falsifying her age in doing so.

Murchison found her guilty, but let her go without penalty, saying, "It is a technical violation, but brought on to some extent by the liquor commission's refusing to recognize the law."

Ridgway Retained As Chief Of Staff

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army announced Thursday Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway will be retained as chief of staff beyond his normal retirement date, March 31.

In making the announcement, Secretary of the Army Stevens said he was acting under a law authorizing the retention in service of up to five generals beyond the age of 60 who have had 35 years of service.

Ridgway was appointed chief of staff on Aug. 15, 1953 for a two-year term.

Stevens' action will permit him to serve his full two years as the Army's top officer.

Without it, Ridgway would have been subject to mandatory retirement upon reaching the age of 60 at the end of March.

The Army announcement contained no reference to possible extension of Ridgway's tour as chief of staff.

Ridgway is reported to have been unhappy over the administration's decision to cut back on the Army while increasing the Air Force.

Use Of Fir Plywood Rapidly On Increase

PORTLAND (AP)—Since World War II the use of fir plywood has gone up from 10 to 23 square feet for every person in this nation.

The Douglas Fir Plywood Assn. reported this Wednesday, adding that production increased 4 per cent last year, despite the lumber strike, and that order increased 14 per cent.

The total output from the 97 fir plywood mills in the three Pacific Coast states was 3,823,629,000 feet. The association said this was 75 per cent of the nation's output.

Funeral Held For Last Of Pony Express Riders

GLENS FALLS, N.Y. (AP)—A colorful chapter of history was closed this week as Bronco Charlie Miller, who said he was the last of the pony express riders, was buried in Glens Falls Cemetery.

A horse preceded the cortege and carried one of Miller's first saddles. His boots were reversed in the stirrups in the traditional cavalry salute to the dead.

Miller, 105, died Saturday in a New York City hospital.

DIES AT 101

CORVALLIS (AP)—Arthur Marks, who homesteaded near Yachats about 1875, died in a hospital here Wednesday at the age of 101. He had been ill only one day.

A native of Canada, Marks returned to Canada to take charge of the lighthouse at Nootka, B. C., between 1910 and 1920. Then he moved to Corvallis. In his latter years he lived with a daughter, Mrs. Annes Hope. Also surviving are two sons.

Unbeliever, Minister's Wife Debate On Radio

LONDON (AP)—The British Broadcasting Corp. (BBC) ended its controversial talks by a self-styled unbeliever Wednesday night with a debate on religion between the author of the talks and a minister's wife.

The two women—Mrs. Margaret Knight, 51-year-old university lecturer who advocates "scientific humanism," and Mrs. Jenny Morton, 56-year-old wife of a Scottish clergyman—agreed on one thing: Love is all-important in bringing up children.

The 30-minute debate followed two solo radio talks by Mrs. Knight on raising children. In them, she likened the Christian story to Greek mythology and suggested that children be told God is no more real than Santa Claus.
