Idaho House Requested To Repeal Tax Cut

BOISE (AP) — The Idaho House of Representatives was asked Thursday to repeal the 15 per cent income tax cut passed in 1953, and the Highway Committee said a bill would be introduced soon raising auto license fees.

The House Highway Committee had a bill ready setting a minimum fee of $10 for automobile license plates. This would apply to cars seven years or older.

Plates for cars less than a year old would cost $25, two and three years old $30 and four, five and six years old $15.

Its estimated measure would bring in about 1 1/2 million dollars additional revenue to the highway fund.
