

Navy Recruiter Slaten Visits At Myrtle Creek

The U.S. Navy has decided to give Myrtle Creek first hand attention.

It was announced this week that starting Jan. 28, Roseburg Recruiter Chief Robert E. Lang will be at the Myrtle Creek police station from 10 a.m. to 12 noon each Wednesday, the Myrtle Creek Mail said.

Lower Umpqua Schools Set Bus Specifications

New contract bid specifications for bus transportation of school children have been arrived at by three Lower Umpqua school districts-Reedsport Elementary, Gardiner and Reedsport Union High.

Agreement was reached after School Attorney William Jayne advised that a renewal of the existing contract without competitive bids would be illegal.

Bids on a five-year contract are to be opened March 1. Features to be included in the bids: Proposals are to be on basic bus-mile costs, and the contractor is to be guaranteed a sustained mileage based on yearly estimate, according to the Port Umpqua Courier, Reedsport.

Bus routes are to be adjusted by the three boards and the contractor each year at the opening of school.

Between 100,000 and 200,000 Americans are believed to be victims of muscular dystrophy.
