LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

8 The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore.—Tues., Jan. 25, 1955

GREEN PTA AS GUEST SPEAKER

Dr. Mariar was a guest speaker at the January PTA meeting at Green. The theme of the month was "Let's Get Acquainted with the importance of moral and spiritual values as taught in our school." Special music and spiritual songs were presented.

Mrs. Sixten Lindberg conducted the business meeting, at which it was decided to buy girls volleyball uniforms. R. R. Brand, principal of Joseph Lane, spoke on the bond issue. Mrs. Olson's third grade won the traveling prize. Third grade mothers served refreshments.

DEER CREEK GRANGE SETS PEST CONTEST

South Deer Creek Grange met Saturday evening with master, Esther Moreberg, in charge. One officer was absent. Dale Adams and S. W. VanVoort were appointed as captains of the pest hunt contest. Various reports were given. The lecturer's program was in keeping with the 44th anniversary of the grange.

Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Findlay, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Murdoch and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Anderson.

MRS. LANDER HOSTS WEST MELROSE CLUB

Mrs. Henry Lander was a gracious hostess Thursday to members of the West Melrose Club at her home. Visiting was enjoyed and president, Carol Wulf, appointed Mrs. Johnston to deliver a money donation to the March of Dimes fund from the club.

The hostess served dainty refreshments to Mesdames Dennis Johnston, Ernest McComas, Ed Moon, George Outhouse, Eli Sanders, Amy Sealey, Roy Wilson and Chris Wulf.

MRS. DECKER HOSTS CLUB ON WEDNESDAY

The Roseburg Art and Embroidery Club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Earl Decker on Main Street. The pleasant afternoon was spent in doing a new work and visiting. The hostess served dainty refreshments. Next meeting will be at home of Mrs. C. J. Bradley, 1139 Bethel St. at 1 p.m. pollack Feb. 2.

WINSTON-DILLARD CLUB CHANGES INSTALLATION

Winston-Dillard Toastmistress Club has postponed installation ceremonies for Wednesday night to Feb. 2 at 7:30 p.m. at the Umpqua Hotel.

ROSEBURG LODGES HAVE INSTALLATION

The regular meeting of Roseburg Rebekah Lodge, No. 41, met recently with Kay Snyder, n.g. and Kay Simmons, v.g. presiding. Program officers were: Jewel Stacey and Mabel Lang. There were 49 members and nine visitors present.

The annual report was read and accepted. All committees reported. Alta Smith, now of Ashland, was reported to have had surgery in Medford.

Gertrude Hatfield resigned as trustee and Kay Snyder was elected to serve for the unexpired term. Illene Rapp was elected for a three year term as trustee.

After lodge closed joint installation of officers was held for the Roseburg Philatelic Lodge, No. 8, and Roseburg Rebekah Lodge.

Installing officers were: deputy grand master, Bill Thompson; and district deputy president, Minnie South; deputy marshalls: Oliver Plummer and Ada Hanna; inside guardians: August Heck and Ona Williams; outside guardians: Frank Johnson and Naomi Murdoch; deputy wardens: Leo Gillette and Alice Goff; deputy secretaries: George Dimmick and Maggie Dent; treasurers: Tence Busenbark and Ruth Plummer; chaplains: Ralph Russell and Nona Thompson and musician, Dayne Beach.

Officers installed were: noble grante: Arle Stephens and Kay Simmons; vice grante: Clyde Kester and Thelma Fleishman; recording secretaries: Tence Busenbark and Gertrude Hatfield; financial secretaries: Vera South and V. Vivian Logsdon; treasurers: Ralph Russell and Elsie Russell; wardens: August Heck and Stella Gilbert; conductors: Les Gillette and Jewel Stacey; chaplains: William Curtis and Edith Brock; musician: Mayme Pickens; color bearer: Lydia Gillette; rang's: Oliver Plummer and Lena Poole; lsg's: Frank Johnson and Thelma Webber; rsv's: Bill Thompson and Rubie Bloom; lsg's: Frances Todd and Mabel Lang; ig: Jess Bowman and Esther Burr; og: Harry Rapp and Faye Jensen; Jr. png's: Paul Casey and Kay Snyder.

The installation team retired with a lovely drill. Several new officers, members, visitors and friends spoke briefly. The committee served lovely refreshments, and visiting was enjoyed in the dining room.

FRIENDS ENTERTAINED AT SUTHERLIN HOME

Mrs. Russell Cooper entertained at her home east of Sutherlin Tuesday.

Games were played with prizes being awarded to Mrs. Gladys Adams and Mrs. Charles Berini.

Mrs. Doris Casteel demonstrated household products after which Mrs. Cooper served coffee and cookies to guests: Mesdames Jesse Cooper, Joyce Bottichio, Pearl Adams, Helen Gortley, Chester Davis, Connel Davis, Charles Berini, James Davis, Gladys Barber, Alice Jones, Bea Lance, Joyce Leisinger, Gladys Adams and Doris Casteel.

BOOK REVIEW—TEA PLANNED AT LEADERS' MEETING

The monthly Camp Fire and Blue Bird Leaders' meeting was held Tuesday in the Presbyterian Church social rooms. The meeting was opened by songs, and then called to order by the president, Mrs. Helen Niday; vice president, Mrs. Cora Prusia; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Joyce Culbertson; hospitality, Mrs. Norma Cummins; publicity, Mrs. Marcia Todd; program, Mrs. Joyce Culbertson for Blue Birds and Mrs. Sidney Bertsch for Camp Fire.

There was a discussion on the forthcoming annual dinner, held for all registered adults working in Camp Fire, and their guests. Everyone is anticipating a very interesting evening, with Mrs. Harry Davenport of Spokane, Wash., to be the speaker. This dinner is to be held at the Elk's Ballroom at 7 p.m., Jan. 28, and tickets are available at the Camp Fire office. Reservations may be made if desired. Camp Fire is also sponsoring a book review by Mrs. Davenport while she is here, to be held Jan. 28 at 2 o'clock at the Presbyterian Church social rooms. This will be on the book, "A Bargain With God," and not only has Mrs. Davenport served in many phases of Camp Fire, but is extremely experienced in giving reviews. The admission charge will include a social hour.

DAD'S NIGHT OBSERVED AT DILLARD PTA

"Queen for a Night" was the theme of the dad's night program Monday evening at the Dillard School Parent-Teachers meeting. The humorous skit, under the supervision of Ben Bailey and Howard Harty, was ably performed by faculty and dads from the Dillard Grade and Douglas High Schools. C. A. Dysinger was announcer of commercials and, Paul Dodd, master of ceremonies. The contestants for "Queen for a Night" in highly decorative costumes, were Ben Bailey, Glen Ryder, Bill Weber, W. Johnson, dean of boys from Douglas High and Bobby Weaver. The judges were Wilbur Hill, Howard Bird and Eugene Prowell. The prize for the most outstanding costume went to Bill Weber for "her" hillbilly characterization.

The annual pollack supper was served at 6:30 by the executive board of the PTA. The business session was opened with the invocation by Mrs. Bunny Albertus. A detailed discussion on the sales tax situation was held. Dillard PTA takes the stand that they are for the sales tax, if it is used for educational purposes only and to alleviate property tax.

Mrs. Margaret Kimmell's room won the room count. A film on pollack was shown. Paul Dodd's seventh and eighth grade beginner's band from Douglas High played several selections.

The next meeting will be the Founder's day program, presented by Mrs. Letha Ryder Monday evening, Feb. 21.

SUTHERLIN CLUB INSTALLS OFFICERS

The Associated Business Women's Club of Sutherlin held its first meeting of the new year Monday night at the Eagles Hall with a 7:00 o'clock pollack dinner preceding the business, and enjoyed by fifteen members and two guests. Mrs. R. C. Williams and Mrs. W. D. Wood with Mrs. Marvin Steinbach and Miss Luella Plueard were hostesses.

The first order of business was the installation of the new officers for 1955 as follows: Mrs. James Jackson, president; Mr. Ed Wolff, vice president; Mrs. O. L. Torrey, secretary; Mrs. Ralph Anderson, treasurer; and Mrs. John Buchanan, director.

Art Correll, was appointed to represent the club on the Timber Days committee. Mrs. Frank McCord was reported as very ill.

After the meeting a social evening of games were enjoyed by those present.
