

Name Of Baby In Phone Book

SEATTLE (AP) — Rosalita Spickelmier is the youngest person ever listed in the Seattle telephone directory and she doesn't care to discuss it.

So her mother does all the talking for Rosalita, who is 4 months old.

Asked why her daughter's name appears in the new directory instead of her own, Mrs. Gordon Spickelmier said "she's all I have left."

"My husband was a tail gunner in a Navy plane," said Mrs. Spickelmier. "He was in that plane that went down in the Yellow Sea a year ago. He'd been in the Navy 12 years."

"He fought in Europe and in the Pacific, then in Korea. He enlisted when he was only 17. But the war finally caught up with him. He was a wonderful guy."

She was silent a moment. Rosalita, clutching the 'phone like a new doll, gurgled happily. In a soft drawl straight from Kingsport, Tenn., Mrs. Spickelmier added:

"I can't list Gordon's name, but I can her's."

Partition At School Aids In Handling Student Overflow

By MRS. GEORGE MUNSON

Mrs. Leo Denn and two children of Eugene and Mrs. Bernard Denn and son of Portland, spent the weekend at the Leo Denn cabin on Upper Hubbard Creek Road. They were dinner guests Saturday at the home of Mrs. Leo Denn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tellier.

School Crowded

Due to crowded classrooms at the Umpqua School, a temporary partition has been built in one of the larger rooms, giving a fourth room. Mrs. Thennes of Umpqua has been engaged as the teacher. The primary now has Shirley Brown as teacher. The second and third grades will have Agnes Wilcox, the fourth and fifth have Myrtle Thennes and the sixth, seventh and eighth grades will be under Genevieve Murphy. Mrs. Murphy is also the principal. Bonds for the new addition to the building were approved by the voters in December.

Attend Meeting

A group of 4-H members and leaders attended the 4-H Leaders January meeting of the Douglas county association in Roseburg. It was to acquaint the children in the ways of conducting their own meetings and the duties of their offices. The groups were divided as to the office of each club. The news reporters were instructed by Miss Laura Olson of the News Review. The presidents were addressed by M. A. Jones, who is president of the leaders group. The vice presidents met with Jane Gates, the secretaries with Dorothy Williams, who is the secretary of the leaders; and the song leaders with Opal Munson, who is vice president of the association. Those from Umpqua were Janet Rippstein, Rolly

Tandy, Peggy Murphy, Denise Myers, Marietta Munson, Barbara Mohr, Norma Perry, Joyce Rippstein, with their leaders, Mr. and Mrs. Murphy and Mrs. Rippstein.

Negro Doctors Raise Discrimination Cry

ATLANTA (AP) — The National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People charges that Negro doctors were discriminated against at an American Cancer Society state meeting here last week.

Officials of the society's Georgia Division have denied the assertion, saying the complaint was brought about by an error in addressing invitations to the meeting.

The NACAP said in a statement that the Negro doctors did not attend any of the sessions because of what they considered an insult in being barred from the Society's luncheon and dinner.
